Dear Mom,

I understand that my petition to appoint Martin Coleman as Trustee of the Orly Genger 1993 Trust ("Trust") has been denied. My attorneys are reviewing the decision and considering all of my options, including whether to appeal.

For now, and until further notice, it is my strong desire to retain all of the shares of Trans-Resources, Inc. ("TRI") that are currently in the Trust, and I direct you not to sell them. If you are approached, or have been approached, with an offer to purchase any of the TRI shares in the Trust, please notify me immediately. If, despite my wishes, you consider accepting an offer, do not sell any shares until I have a reasonable period of time to maximize the benefit to the Trust, including possible alternative transactions.

As you know, the Trust's TRI shares are subject to an Irrevocable Proxy, dated as of October 29, 2004, in favor of my father, Arie Genger, as well as a voting trust letter agreement with a back-up form of voting trust agreement and voting trust certificate delivered in connection with the Proxy. Copies of those documents are attached. If anyone approaches you about the TRI shares, I insist that you inform them of these facts, and provide them with a copy of this letter and attached documents.

for the Benefit of ORLY GINGER.

File No. 0017/2008

R O T H , S .

This is a contested application by the primary beneficiary (Orly Genger) of an irrevocable inter vivos trust established by her father, Arie Genger, seeking the appointment of a successor trustee or, alternatively, the appointment of a "special trustee" to investigate alleged wrongdoing concerning the trust.

Petitioner's mother, Dalia Genger (grantor's former wife), contends that she is the duly appointed successor trustee and that there is no basis to appoint another fiduciary for any purpose.

The trust agreement, dated December 13, 1993, provides for discretionary income and principal distributions to Orly for life with remainder to her descendants or, if none, to the grantor's descendants in trust.

Article SEVENTH (B), (D), (E), and (G) of the trust instrument sets forth the following procedure for the resignation of trustees and the appointment of their successors.

A trustee may resign by delivering a signed and acknowledged instrument of resignation in person or by certified or registered mail to the other trustee and to either the grantor or the income beneficiary. Such resignation is effective upon the receipt of the acknowledged instrument by the other trustee (if there is one) and the grantor or the income beneficiary or at such later date as may be specified in the instrument.

08 DEC 2008

A trustee may appoint his or her successor by delivering a signed and acknowledged instrument in the same manner as described above for resignation. Any such appointment, however, is valid only if the appointee qualifies by delivering a signed and acknowledged instrument of acceptance in person or by certified or registered mail to each trustee and the grantor or the income beneficiary within 30 days after the later of 1) the date on which a copy of the appointment instrument is delivered to him or her, and 2) the effective date of the appointment as set forth in the appointment instrument. It is observed that there is no provision that requires a resigning trustee to appoint a successor or that there always be two trustees in office.

The original two trustees served until October 2004, when they resigned and appointed David Parnes and Eric Gribitz as their successors. On February 12, 2007, Mr. Gribitz resigned without appointing a successor. On April 26, 2007, Mr. Parnes resigned and appointed as his successor Leah Fang in a signed and acknowledged instrument. Although Ms. Fang noted her acceptance at the bottom of such instrument, her signature was not acknowledged. However, in another document entitled "Release" executed and acknowledged by Ms. Fang the same day, she, as trustee, purported to discharge Mr. Parnes from liability. It is undisputed that thereafter Ms. Fang acted as trustee. Indeed, Ms. Fang's contention that she received a number of requests for information from petitioner and that petitioner referred to her in writing and orally as trustee is not disputed by petitioner.

On December 12, 2007, Ms. Fang, without resigning in accordance with the trust agreement, attempted to appoint Patricia Enriquez, as successor trustee. Her designation of Ms. Enriquez, however, was by an unacknowledged letter in which she referred to her own resignation as taking effect upon Ms. Enriquez's acceptance of the appointment. Ms. Enriquez accepted by signing the letter, but such acceptance was not acknowledged and, in any event, there is nothing in the record to suggest that such "acceptance" was delivered in accordance with the trust instrument. Two weeks later, an attorney for Ms. Enriquez notified petitioner's counsel by email that her client had advised that she had no intention to overcome the procedural omissions.

On January 3, 2008, Ms. Fang and Dalia Genger signed before a notary a memorandum in which Ms. Fang stated that "to the extent that I am still vested with any powers to appoint trustees of the [trust], I confirm your appointment." The next day, Ms. Fang executed an acknowledged instrument of resignation and appointment of successor trustee naming Dalia as her successor and Dalia, on the same day, executed an acknowledged instrument of acceptance. It is undisputed that such documents were delivered in accordance with the trust requirements.

We address first that portion of the instant application which seeks the appointment of a successor trustee on the ground that Dalia was not validly appointed. In such connection, petitioner argues first that, because Ms. Fang's signature on the bottom of Mr. Parnes's appointment instrument was not acknowledged, she never accepted the position in accordance with the trust agreement (and thus could not appoint Dalia her successor). However, such argument ignores the "Release" mentioned above that Ms. Fang executed the same day. Such instrument, which was signed and duly acknowledged, unequivocally establishes Ms. Fang's acceptance of the position. Since petitioner does not challenge the authenticity of such instrument or Mr. Parnes' contention, supported by the record, that it was delivered in accordance with the trust instrument and, as noted above, petitioner thereafter communicated with Ms. Fang as trustee, Ms. Fang properly qualified as successor trustee.

Petitioner's second argument that, in any event, Ms. Fang's appointment of Dalia was ineffective because Ms. Fang had previously resigned as trustee is also without merit. Simply put, Ms. Fang had not previously resigned because her letter to Ms. Enriquez did not contain the formalities (i.e., an acknowledgment) required by the trust agreement. Moreover, although not a model of clarity, the letter makes clear that Ms. Fang did not intend to leave the trust without a trustee in the event that Ms. Enriquez failed to qualify, which is exactly what happened. Thus, Ms. Fang had authority to appoint Dalia as her successor.

Since there is no dispute that the instrument of resignation and appointment executed by Ms. Fang on January 4, 2008, and Dalia's instrument of acceptance of the same date were executed and delivered in accordance with the trust agreement, Dalia is the duly appointed successor trustee of the trust. To find otherwise would be to ignore the chronology of events and the purpose of the provisions at issue, namely to ensure that the trust always has a fiduciary ready, willing and able to act. The fact that petitioner does not wish her mother to be the fiduciary because she considers her an adversary in a broader intra-family dispute does not provide a basis to ignore the grantor's intent, as reflected in the trust instrument, that an acting trustee, and not the beneficiary, decides who shall become a successor trustee. Accordingly, petitioner's application to appoint a successor trustee is denied.

We next turn to petitioner's alternate request for relief, namely that a "special trustee" be appointed for the "purpose of investigation and taking discovery with respect to the wrongful dealings concerning the assets and income of the trust."

It is noted initially that petitioner's only allegations of "wrongful dealings" concern a close corporation, TPR Investment Associates, Inc. She contends that her brother Sagi, who is an officer of TPR, and Dalia, who was a shareholder at the time this proceeding was commenced, are engaged in a "wrongful scheme" to divert assets to themselves and, as a result, Dalia "could not possibly" investigate wrongdoing at TPR, which the petition describes as the "greatest" asset of the trust.

However, the premise of the application, namely that the trust's interest in TPR would enable the trustee to investigate or seek relief from TPR, does not appear to be correct. Petitioner does not dispute Dalia's assertion, supported in the record, that the trust is not a shareholder of TPR at all. Rather, D&K LP, an entity in which the trust owns a 48 percent interest, in turn owns approximately 50 percent of TPR. Petitioner does not explain what appears to be a material misstatement concerning TPR's relationship to the trust. Nor does she identify how a trustee under such circumstances might be in a position to "investigate and address the TPR issues".

In any event, assuming arguendo that a trustee would somehow be able to investigate alleged misconduct at TPR, petitioner's vague and speculative allegations of "wrongful conduct" at TPR from which Dalia purportedly benefitted do not warrant the appointment of a "special trustee". Similarly, petitioner's allegations (made upon information and belief) that Dalia had knowledge of alleged improper acts by former trustee, David Parnes, in relation to TPR are patently insufficient to warrant the remedy of a "special trustee". In such connection, it is noted that Mr. Parnes and Ms. Fang have been directed to account for their proceedings as trustees (Matter of Genger, NYLJ, Feb. 25, 2008, at 29, col 3), giving petitioner a forum to seek relief for most of the conduct about which she complains.

Finally, it is observed that petitioner has not alleged that Dalia has refused a request for information, which would warrant relief (SCPA 2102), or has failed as trustee to protect trust assets. Indeed, it appears that Dalia (who states that she is ready and able to act as fiduciary) has yet to assume the duties of trustee in deference to her daughter's position in this litigation. As a validly appointed trustee, she should be given the opportunity to do what she deems necessary to manage and protect the trust's assets.

Based upon the foregoing, the appointment of a "special trustee" is unwarranted at this time and, accordingly, the application is denied, without prejudice to renewal if future circumstances warrant such relief.

This decision constitutes the order of the court.

Re: Orly Genger 1993 Trust

Ms. Genger:

Please be advised that we represent Orly Genger in her capacity as beneficiary of the Orly Genger 1993 Trust (the "Trust"). You are presently serving as her sole trustee.

Orly has received no information about the assets, income and investments of the Trust and is very concerned that the assets of the Trust have been, or could be, affected by the following lawsuits: Glenclova Investment Co. v. Re: Orly Genger 1993 Trust

Dear Ms. Siegel-Baum:

I write to respond to your May 14th letter to my client, Dalia Genger in her capacity as Trustee of The 1993 Orly Genger Trust (the Trust).

May I start by expressing Mrs. Genger's understanding about the concern that your client, Orly Genger, has about the effect her interests of the various lawsuits your letter mentions. Mrs. Genger has the same concern, particularly since, as we understand it, the Glenclova action raises the issue of whether the transfer to the Trust of shares of Trans-Resources, Inc. (TRI) was invalid under the TRI shareholders' agreement.

Having shared that concern, I would like to respond to your letter in narrative form, rather than in the form a response to a litigation demand for production.

All TRI shares are, I am informed, held for the benefit of the shareholders by TRI. Thus Mrs. Genger does not physically possess a share certificate. I am informed that the absence of such a certificate did not prevent The Sagi Genger Trust from selling the shares it was given.

As your client knows, Mrs. Genger became Trustee January 4, 2008, as successor trustee to Leah Fang. Ms. Fang has an accounting pending in Surrogate's Court, New York County, File No. 0017/2008.

Mrs. Genger has not taken any action as Trustee and has not received any dividends or other property or assets in respect of the TRI shares.

As your client knows, D & K I.P. pledged its 240 shares of the stock of TPR Investment Associates, Inc. (TPR) to secure its December 21, 1993 Note to TPR in the principal amount of $8,950,000. I believe that your client has the D&K organization papers; if not I'll be glad to copy them for you at your expense, as they're about an inch thick. By notice dated 8/31/2008, TPR declared that Note to be in default and subsequently sold the TPR shares for $2,200,000 on February 27, 2009. I attach papers concerning this transaction.

As a result of the foreclosure, the TRI shares are the Trust's only asset.

To date, Mrs. Genger has not filed and fiduciary tax returns, nor submitted any of her expenses for reimbursement by the Trust nor taken any commissions.

Sincerely,

Robert A. Meister

Re: Orly Genger 1993 Trust

Dear Robert:

In response to your email dated June 10, 2009, we are prepared to meet with you and Dalia, at our offices, if you agree to the following:

1. You agree that Orly will not be present at the meeting. Based upon prior meetings Orly has advised us that her involvement in this meeting will be too emotionally difficult.
2. Dalia stipulates, in writing, that she will not, under any circumstances and until we resolve our differences, sell, transfer or remove the TRI shares from the Orly Trust. In January 2009 Orly advised Dalia of her strong desire to retain all of the TRI shares currently held by the Orly Trust and specifically directed Dalia not to sell them.

If you agree to the above, we are prepared to schedule a meeting for early next week and are available after 4 p.m. on June 16th and after 2 p.m. on June 17th. If we do not hear back from you by the close of business on Friday, June 12, 2009 we will assume that you and Dalia are unable to agree to our requests. I look forward to hearing from you.

Dear Judy: I just received your letter at 3:50 today. While I have forwarded it to Dalia Genger, other professional commitments make it impossible for me to respond before early next week. So if we are to have a meeting, we'll have to find different times.

AFFIDAVIT OF DALIA GENDER
IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S
APPLICATION FOR AN ORDER OF CONTEMPT AND OTHER RELIEF AND IN OPPOSITION TO DEFENDANT'S CROSS MOTION

STATE OF NEW YORK)
COUNTY OF NEW YORK) ss.:

DALIA GENDER, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am the Plaintiff in this action, and submit this affidavit in support of my application that this Court hold my ex-husband, Arie Genger ("Arie"), in contempt for his willful failure to comply with the instructions issued by our son, Sagi Genger ("Sagi"), the attorney-in-fact. The facts stated herein are based upon my personal knowledge unless otherwise stated.
2. Concurrent with the execution of the Stipulation of Settlement (the "Stipulation") dated October 30, 2004 between Arie and me, it was understood that Sagi would act as Chief Executive Officer of TPR in order to execute various documents required under the Stipulation. It was also understood that the note (the "D&K Note") issued by D&K Limited Partnership dated December 21, 1993, in the principal sum of $8,950,000 and payable to TPR, which was attached as an Exhibit to the Stipulation, would be saleable by Sagi Genger for as little as $10,000. Simultaneous with the execution of the Stipulation, the Board of TPR executed a Board Resolution which gave effect to these understandings. Arie's counsel reviewed the Board Resolution prior to its execution. He did not state any objection to the Board Resolution, and was satisfied that the Board Resolution reflected the parties' understanding and agreement. A true and correct copy of the Board Resolution is attached hereto. Although the Board Resolution is dated October 31, 2004, it was executed on October 30, 2004.

3. The purpose of the D&K Note Board Resolution was to carry out our understanding that I not be in the position to foreclose on the D&K Note, and to take for myself an interest that Aric and I intended for the children.

4. In August 2006, TPR sold the D&K Note (but retained a nominal contingent interest) for $12,000.

ORLY GENDER, as a person interested, for the removal of DALIA GENDER as Trustee of the Orly Genger 1993 Trust pursuant to SCPA §711(11)

ROBERT A. MEISTER, a member of the New York Bar, hereby affirms under the penalties of perjury:

1 I make this affirmation to reply briefly to Petitioner Orly Genger's
Affidavit in Opposition to Dalia Genger's Motion to Dismiss the Second Amended Petition of beneficiary Orly Genger ("Orly Aff."). I will not repeat all the arguments in my original papers, but merely respond to points in the opposition affidavit.

2 Like her Second Amended Petition, the Orly Aff. is rich with conclusions without factual or legal support.

3 As a preliminary matter, there is no legal requirement that a motion to dismiss be verified, and of course most are not verified. As counsel, I signed the motion and the affirmation in compliance with 22 N.Y.C.R.R. § 130-1.1a(a), and thus the fact that Dalia Genger did not sign the motion is an irrelevant red herring. Nor is there any other legal basis to argue that this Motion to Dismiss is somehow "procedurally incorrect" (Orly Aff. ¶ 2).¹

¹ Surrogate Webber's statements during the July, 2009, argument were musings, not rulings, as she stated, "I wasn't - - I was just making a comment." Orly Aff., Ex. B, p. 20, ll. 23 - 24.

4 The Decision of the Delaware Chancery Court in TRI Investors, et. al. v. Arie Genger, Civil Action Number 3994-VCS (August 18, 2010) is not “newly discovered evidence” (Orly Aff. ¶4), but a controlling judicial decision which this Court can and indeed must take judicial notice, and it shows that there is no merit to the Second Amended Petition nor any harm from tale it attempts to tell.

5 Dalia Genger had under no fiduciary duty to, and legally could not, manage the Orly Trust’s indirect interest in TPR as alleged in Orly Aff. ¶¶ 8 and 11, and therefore this is not a proper grounds for her removal as trustee of the Orly Genger Trust. The Orly Trust is not an owner of TPR. Rather, as Surrogate Roth held in dismissing Orly Genger’s original petition to remove, it is D & K LP, an entity in which the trust owns only a 48 percent limited partnership interest that was the owner of TPR stock. D & K LP is a limited partnership created under the Delaware Limited Partnership Act, which explicitly states that limited partners are subject to the standards and restrictions set forth in the partnership agreement. See Del. Code § 17- 106. And the Amended and Restated Limited Partnership Agreement, Exhibit E hereto, signed by the Orly on November 22, 2007, well before Dalia Genger became Trustee, states in Article 9(e) that:

No Limited Partner shall take part in the control or management of the Partnership or of the business of the Partnership, nor shall it have any authority to act for or to bind the partnership in any way.

Thus as a limited partner, Dalia Genger, as Trustee, was legally prohibited from managing the D & K LP’s interest in TPR.

6 The Orly Affidavit again substantially mischaracterized Surrogate Roth's prior decision that denied Orly's action to remove Dalia as trustee of the Orly Genger Trust. Surrogate Roth's Opinion, attached as Exhibit A to this Motion, made no such "suggestion" that Orly commence a proceeding under the SCPA to support further claims to remove Dalia. In fact, Surrogate Roth's opinion stated that Orly's allegations of "wrongful conduct" were both "vague and speculative," and as a result, Surrogate Roth found that Orly's attempt to remove Dalia as trustee to be "unwarranted."

7 The Orly Affidavit disingenuously argues (§14) that there is no proof that Dalia divested herself of her controlling interest in TPR. Did Orly Genger forget that in paragraph 39 of her own verified Second Amended Verified Complaint in her Supreme Court action, Orly Genger v. Dalia Genger et. al., Index No. 109749/09, the relevant parts of which are attached as Exhibit F hereto, Orly Genger herself swore that:

"Around the time of her appointment as successor trustee to the Orly Trust in January 2008, Dalia divested herself of the balance of her TPR shares."

Thus Orly's own verification is the proof her affidavit here wrongly asserts is absent.

8 Dalia Genger is not and never was trustee of the Sagi Trust, and neither the Orly Trust nor Dalia Genger, as Trustee of the Orly Trust, was a party to the Sagi Trust sale of TRI stock. See Exhibit C to the Motion. Thus the Orly Affidavit's baseless assertion (Orly Aff. ¶ 16) that Dalia Genger "could have moved to reverse the sale or sought to force the Sagi Trust to give proceeds of the sale of TRI stock to TPR" is a fantasy and not a legitimate legal theory.

9 Moreover, Orly's tenuous claim of injury – her contention that Orly Trust owns shares of TRI stock, which supposedly lost value as a result of the Sagi Trust shares – is completely undercut by the Final Judgment Order of the Delaware Chancery Court determining that the transfer of TRI shares to the Orly Trust was void under the TRI Shareholders' Agreement and thus [Arie Genger and] "the Orly Trust have been found to not be the record or beneficial owners of the [TRI] shares transferred to them". TRI Investors, et. al. v. Arie Genger, Civil Action Number 3994-VCS (August 18, 2010); Exhibit D, at ¶ 9.

10 And there is no basis for the assertion (Orly Aff. ¶ 21) that Dalia Genger should have caused the Orly Trust to intervene in the Delaware action. As the Opinion makes clear, the issue was the effect of a contract signed by Orly's father, Arie Genger, and not her mother, Dalia Genger, and whether Arie Genger gave notice to or got the consent of other TRI shareholders, issues as to which Dalia had no knowledge or other input.

11 While there is an appeal pending, if the Delaware Supreme Court affirms the decision that the Orly Trust's ownership of TRI shares was void ab initio, any allegations that they lost value based on the Sagi Trust's sale would be totally baseless and no basis to remove Dalia Genger as Trustee. Even if the Delaware Supreme Court reverses that decision, there was nothing that Dalia, as trustee of the Orly Genger Trust, could have done to prevent the Sagi Trust from selling its TRI shares and thus there is no basis to remove or surcharge Dalia Genger.

12 As the Second Amended Petition – Orly Genger’s fourth bite at the apple does not allege any action by Dalia Genger took or any inaction she could have taken during the time she was Trustee and free from judicial restraint or any action that she could have taken, there is no basis for this proceeding and the Petition should be dismissed.

AMENDED AND RESTATED LIMITED PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT
D & K LIMITED PARTNERSHIP

THIS AMENDED AND RESTATED LIMITED PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") of D&K Limited Partnership (the "Partnership") is made as of the 30th day of October, 2004, by and among the 1993 Orly Genger Trust (the "OG Trust"), the 1993 Sapi Genger Trust (the "SG Trust"), each a limited partner of the partnership, and D&K GP LLC, the general partner of the Partnership.

WHEREAS, the Partnership was formed as a limited partnership pursuant to the provisions of the Delaware Limited Partnership Act, by the filing of a Certificate of Limited Partnership with the Office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and the execution of the Limited Partnership Agreement of the Partnership dated as of December 31, 1988 (the "Original Agreement"); and

WHEREAS, the Original Agreement was subsequently amended several times to reflect, among others, the replacement of the limited partners, the replacement of the general partner, as well as amendments to specific provisions of the Original Agreement and amendments thereto; and

WHEREAS, the parties hereto desire to restate all previous amendments and to enter into this Amended and Restated Limited Partnership Agreement of the Partnership to serve as the governing document of the Partnership;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and agreements herein made and intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties hereby restate the Original Agreement, and amendments thereto, in its entirety to read as follows:

1. Formation of Partnership. (a) The Partnership was formed, under the name D & K Limited Partnership (the "Partnership"), as a limited partnership under the provisions of the Delaware Limited Partnership Act, as indicated in the preamble of this Agreement, and the execution of the Original Agreement. If requested by the General Partner, the Limited Partners shall promptly execute all certificates and other documents consistent with the terms of this Agreement necessary for the General Partner to accomplish all filing, recording, publishing and other acts as may be appropriate to comply with all requirements for (a) the formation and operation of a limited partnership under the laws of the State of Delaware, (b) if the General Partner deems it advisable, the operation of the Partnership as a limited partnership, or partnership in which the Limited Partners have limited liability, in all jurisdictions where the Partnership proposes to operate and (c) all other filings required to be made by the Partnership.

(b) The general partner of the Partnership is D&K GP LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, and any successor individual or corporation admitted to the Partnership as general partner (the "General Partner"). The limited partners of the Partnership shall be the SG Trust and the OG Trust, and any other persons who are admitted to the Partnership as additional or substituted limited partners in Paragraph 17 (the "Limited Partners") (the Limited Partners and the General Partner, shall be referred to herein as "Partners", and each - a "Partner").

2. Purpose. The purpose of the Partnership is to acquire and hold an equity interest (initially, represented by 240 common shares) in TPR Investment Associates, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("TPR") and other legal business activities as determined by the General Partner.

3. Place of Business. The principal place of business of the Partnership shall be located at 1211 Park Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10128, or at such other location(s) as may hereafter be determined by the General Partner on notice to the Limited Partners.

4. Term. The term of the Partnership shall continue until December 31, 2038; provided, however, that the Partnership shall be dissolved prior to such date upon the happening of any of the following events:

(a) upon the written election to terminate made by the General Partner at any time, which election shall be sent to the other Partners;

(b) upon the death, bankruptcy, incapacity, or other withdrawal of the General Partner, unless within ninety (90) days after such event, all of the Limited Partners elect to reconstitute the Partnership, continue its business and elect a new general partner.

(c) in the event the Partnership has distributed all of its assets.

5. Capital Contributions.

(a) The Capital Contributions of the Partners consists of the following:

D&K GP LLC	$50,000
1993 Sagi Genger Trust	$600,000
1993 Orly Genger Trust	$600,000

(b) Each of the Partners shall assume personal liability under any and all indebtedness incurred by the Partnership to finance (and refinance) the purchase by the Partnership of the equity interest in TPR referred to in Paragraph 2 hereof. The Partners shall share such liability among themselves in accordance with their interests in the Partnership, and any payment by a Partner of its share of such liability shall be deemed to be a contribution to the capital of the Partnership as to which such Partner has no rights of contribution or subrogation.

6. Interest in Partnership. Each Partner's interest in the Partnership shall be equal to the proportion that the then balance in his or her capital account bears to the aggregate balance of all of the Partners' capital accounts; where applicable this computation shall be governed by the specific stipulations in Paragraphs 7 and 8 hereof.

7. Capital Account A capital account has been established as shown per "5(a)". Accounts shall be maintained in accordance with the applicable regulations under the Internal Revenue Service as amended ("the Code"), and Income Tax Regulations (the "Regulations") promulgated under the Code. Interest shall not be paid on any capital account and no Partner shall have the right to withdraw any part of his capital account until dissolution of the Partnership, and then such distribution or withdrawal shall be governed by paragraph 14 hereof. No Partner shall have the right to bring an action for partition. Each Partner's capital account shall be credited by capital contributions. The parties agree that as of the date hereunder the capital accounts are as per "5(a)" without regard to previous payments made by any of the Partners. In consideration for such, the Partners recognize the note originally issued in the amount of $8,950,000 referred to in paragraph 5 the "Note" as a liability of each Limited Partner to the Partnership as denoted. Partnership rights as per "22" may also be used to enforce collection of the Note by the Partnership. Any attempted interference by a Partner or a person beneficially owning an interest in the Partnership automatically and irrevocably vests the General Partner with the right to revert the capital account of any Partner to a percentage based upon his actual pro rata contributions, expel, or otherwise suspend the membership and all rights accumulated in connection therewith without notice and hold his share of partnership assets as collateral for payments due. Upon thirty days notice the Partnership may demand full payment of the Limited Partner's pro rata share of the Note.

8. Profits and Losses. The net profits and net losses of the Partnership shall be shared by the Partners in proportion to the then balances in their respective capital accounts. The terms "net profits" and "net losses" shall mean the net profits and net losses of the Partnership as determined for federal income tax purposes.

9. Management.

(a) Except as expressly provided herein, the management and control of the day-to-day operations of the Partnership and the maintenance of the Partnership property shall rest exclusively with the General Partner. (b) To the fullest extent permitted by law, the General Partner shall have complete authority over and exclusive control and management of the business and affairs of the Partnership and all of the Partnership property and all rights, powers and authority appropriate therefore. The powers and discretion of the General Partner on behalf of the Partnership shall include, but shall not be limited to, making investments, selling assets, lending money for any lawful purpose whatsoever, borrowing money for any lawful purpose whatsoever, borrowing money for any lawful purpose whatsoever (and posting assets of the Partnership as collateral therefore), making tax elections under the Code, making distributions to the Partners (subject to Paragraph 10 hereof), executing guarantees for any lawful purpose whatsoever (and posting assets of the Partnership as collateral therefore) and doing all other acts or things necessary to carry out and implement the purposes of the Partnership, provided that each such action is taken upon reasonable terms to the Partnership. The General Partner may delegate, in writing, any of her powers under this Agreement.

(c) Any document, instrument or agreement to be executed and delivered by and on behalf of the Partnership shall be effective if signed and delivered by the General Partner or a delegate of the General Partner.

(d) Each of the other Partners hereby gives its approval to any action taken or to be taken on behalf of the Partnership by the General Partner, and agrees that it shall have no cause of action against the Partnership or the General Partner except for any claim based upon:

- (i) the fraud, bad faith or willful misconduct of a Partner, or
- (ii) the breach by a Partner of any provision of this Agreement or of any other written agreement to which the Partnership and such person are parties.

(e) No Limited Partner shall take part in the control or management of the Partnership or of the business of the Partnership, nor shall it have any authority to act for or to bind the Partnership in any way.

(f) The Partners acknowledge that the General Partner, its managing member(s), officers, employees and representatives, as the case may be, are hereby released from all liability and are hereby held harmless for any acts or omission they might have taken in their various capacities, whether as officers, employees, representatives, or the like, of TPR or of the Partnership. The Partners further acknowledge that certain actions between TPR and the Partnership, conducted under the direction, instructions or supervision of said employees, officers, managing members, representatives and the like, would be considered 'self-dealing'. The Partners hereby indemnify the General Partner, its managing members, officers, employees, representatives and the like, to the fullest extent permitted by law, from any such actions or omissions including, but not limited to, actions considered 'self-dealing'.

10. Drawings of Income and Principal.

(a) After making provisions for current debts and other obligations of the Partnership and establishing reasonable reserves for the reasonable needs of the Partnership's business, the General Partner shall distribute, not less frequently than annually, all of the remaining cash of the Partnership.

(b) During the Partnership year of 2038 all of the then remaining principal and accumulated income of the Partnership shall be distributed to the Partners and, upon the final distribution, the Partnership shall terminate.

(c) All distributions of principal, accumulated income and current income made to the Partners shall be made in proportion to each of the Partner's interest as set forth in Paragraph 6 hereof, and the available amount shall be computed after taking into account debts and reserves such as are permitted under Paragraph 14 hereof.

11. Transfer of Partnership Interest. A Partner may not sell, assign, or encumber his or its interest in the Partnership or otherwise withdraw or retire from the Partnership without the prior written consent of the other Partners. No sale or exchange of any interest in the Partnership may be made if the transfer of the interest sought to be sold or exchanged may result, in the opinion of legal counsel to the Partnership, in (i) the termination of the Partnership under Section 708 of the Code, or (ii) the violation of any applicable federal or state securities law.

12. Title to Property and Bank Accounts. The property of the Partnership shall be held in the name of the Partnership or the General Partner as nominee for the Partnership. All Partnership funds shall be deposited in its name in such bank account or accounts as shall be designated by the General Partner and all withdrawals therefrom shall be made upon the signature of the General Partner or such person or persons as shall be so designated by the General Partner.

13. Books. The General Partner shall cause the Partnership to keep accounts and complete books and records of the business of the Partnership at the principal place of business of the Partnership, and each Partner shall at all reasonable times have access thereto.

14. Termination.

(a) Upon the termination and dissolution of the Partnership, if the Partnership is not continued pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, the General Partner or, if there is no General Partner, any person elected by a majority of the Limited Partners to perform such liquidation of the assets of the Partnership, shall proceed with the orderly liquidation of the assets of the Partnership, and the net proceeds of such liquidation shall be applied and distributed in the following order of priority:

(i) to the payment of any debts and liabilities of the Partnership and the expenses of liquidation;

(ii) to the establishment of any reserves which the General Partner may deem reasonably necessary to meet any contingent or unforeseen liabilities or obligations of the Partnership or of the Partners arising out of or in connection with the Partnership;

(iii) the balance, if any, shall be distributed among the Partners in proportion to and to the extent of the then positive balances in their respective capital accounts (as determined after giving effect to all capital account adjustments for the Partnership's taxable year during which the liquidation occurs); and

(iv) if any Partner has a deficit balance in his or her capital account (as determined after giving effect to all capital account adjustments for the Partnership's taxable year during which the liquidation occurs), such Partner shall be unconditionally obligated to pay the amount of such deficit balance to the Partnership by the end of such taxable year (or, if later, within ninety (90) days after the date of such liquidation), which amounts shall be applied and distributed in accordance with the provisions of this Paragraph. The General Partner may accept in lieu thereof, collateral, assurance of availability of collateral, or other secured guarantees which the General Partner reasonably deems to be adequate substitutes for such Partner's payment.

(b) In the event it becomes necessary to make distribution of Partnership property in kind, such property shall be transferred and conveyed to the Partners so as to vest in each of them as a tenant in common as undivided interest in the whole of said property in proportion to and to the extent of the then balances in their respective capital accounts.

15. Death of Partner. The death, bankruptcy, dissolution or withdrawal of a limited partner shall not dissolve the Partnership.

16. Notice. All notices and other communications required or permitted under this Agreement shall be in writing and may be personally delivered, sent by first class mail, postage prepaid, or electronically delivered, to an address regularly used by the addressee, with acknowledgement receipt, to the Partners at their addresses as shown from time to time on the records of the Partnership, or as may reasonably be known to the General Partner. Any Partner may specify a different address by notifying the General Partner in writing of such different address. All notices and other communications required or permitted under this Agreement shall be deemed to have been received on the day when personally delivered, on the day the electronic acknowledgement has been received by sender, or three days after being mailed in the manner provided in this Section 16, as the case may be.

17. Admission of New Partners. The Partnership may admit a new Partner upon the majority consent of all of the then existing Partners; consent of the General Partner shall be necessary; such consent to be granted or withheld at the General Partner's sole and unfettered discretion.

18. Governing Law. The Partnership is formed under the laws of the State of Delaware and the Delaware Uniform Limited Partnership Act.

19. Liability of the Partners

(a) General. The Partnership hereby indemnifies and agrees to hold each Partner harmless with respect to any claim, liability, damage, cost or expense (including reasonable attorney's fees and disbursements) incurred by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed as a Partner or in connection with the assets or business of the Partnership, except that no Partner shall be indemnified where he or she is found in a final non-appellable judgment to have committed fraud, bad faith or willful misconduct.

(b) Indemnification of General Partner

(i) To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Partnership, its receiver, or its trustee shall indemnify, save harmless, and pay all judgments and claims against the General Partner, and its members and managers, their respective officers, directors, agents, stockholders, members, managers, partners and other Affiliates, and any other person who serves at the request of the General Partner on behalf of the Partnership as an officer, director, member, partner, employee or agent of the Partnership or any other present or future entity (in each case, an "Indemnitee") and all loss, damage or expense incurred by any Indemnitee or by the Partnership by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by any Indemnitee in connection with the Partnership (including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees and other costs and expenses incurred by any Indemnitee in connection with the investigation and defense of any action based on any such act or omission, which attorneys' fees and any other costs and expenses shall be paid as incurred, and any amounts expended in the settlement of any claim of liability, loss or damage).

(ii) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in the event of any action by a Limited Partner (other than an Affiliate of the General Partner) against any Indemnitee, including a Partnership derivative suit or any class action, the Partnership shall indemnify, save harmless, and pay all costs and expenses of such Indemnitee, including attorneys' fees incurred in the defense of such action, which shall be paid as incurred.

(iii) No Indemnitee shall have any liability to the Partnership or the Limited Partners except liabilities of any Indemnitee for any loss, damage or expense which, by a final judgment or other final adjudication, has been determined to have arisen from such Indemnitee's fraud, willful misconduct or bad faith, which fraud, willful misconduct or bad faith in each case has been determined to have been material to the cause of action adjudicated. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 8.4(a) and 8.4(b), no Indemnitee shall be indemnified for any loss, damage or expense if a final judgment or other final adjudication adverse to such Indemnitee establishes that such Indemnitee's loss, damage or expense arose from such Indemnitee's fraud, willful misconduct or bad faith which, in each case, was material to the cause of action so adjudicated and in the event of any such adverse final judgment or other final determination establishing such Indemnitee's fraud, willful misconduct or bad faith material to the cause of action so adjudicated, such Indemnitee shall reimburse to the Partnership any costs and expenses, including attorneys fees, previously advanced to such Indemnitee. Limited Partners shall not be individually obligated with respect to such indemnification beyond their respective Commitments.

20. Self-Dealing. The fact that any Partner is directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Partnership to render or perform a service or from which or to whom the Partnership may buy or sell merchandise or other property shall not prohibit the General Partner from employing such person, firm or corporation or from dealing with him or her or it, and neither the Partnership nor the other Partners thereof shall have any rights in or to any income or profits derived therefrom by such person, firm or corporation.

21. Power of Attorney. Each Limited Partner hereby constitutes and appoints the General Partner the true and lawful attorney-in-fact for each Limited Partner and in the name, place and stead of each Limited Partner from time to time to execute and file:

- (i) any certificates and other instruments which may be required to be filed by the Partnership under the laws of the State of Delaware or any other governmental authority having jurisdiction thereover, or which the General Partner shall deem it advisable, in its sole discretion, to file;

- (ii) any certificates or other instruments amending or modifying the Certificate of Limited Partnership of the Partnership as provided therein;
- (iii) any certificates or other instruments which may be required to effectuate the dissolution and termination of the partnership and/or the cancellation of the Certificate of Limited Partnership; and
- (iv) any amendment of this Agreement which the General Partner is authorized to make in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

it being expressly understood and intended by each of the Partners that such powers of attorney are coupled with an interest. The foregoing powers of attorney shall be irrevocable and shall survive any assignment of the whole or any part of the interest in the Partnership of a Limited Partner and shall be binding upon the assignee thereof.

22. Authority of General Partner with respect to holdings in TRI

(a) The Partners acknowledge that each one of the Limited Partners holds 102.80 shares of TRI, representing 19.42766% of the common stock of TRI (each, a "LP TRI Interest(s)").

(b) The General Partner is hereby conferred the authority, in its sole and unfettered discretion to mortgage, hypothecate, pledge, create a security interest in or lien upon, or otherwise encumber the LP TRI Interests, for the benefit of the Partnership or that of third parties, in connection with the Note.

(c) Should the General Partner encumber the LP TRI Interests, as permitted under section (b) above - each Limited Partner shall have the right to redeem its LP TRI Interest to the full extent of such LP's pro-rated participation, responsibility or liability for the unpaid amount of the Note.

(d) Each Limited Partner hereby constitutes and appoints the General Partner the true and lawful attorney in fact for each Limited Partner and in the name, place and stead of each Limited Partner from time to time in connection with (i) placing a mortgage, hypothecate, pledge, creating a security interest in or lien upon, or otherwise encumbering the LP TRI Interests in connection with the Note, (ii) removing such mortgage, hypothecation, pledge, security interest, lien or other encumber, placed on the LP TRI Interests, and (iii) negotiating, settling or otherwise handling or managing any rights attached to, or emanating from, the LP TRI Interest and dealing with the LP TRI Interests until payment of the Note has been resolved.

(e) Each Limited Partner agrees that it shall not during the term of this Agreement either directly or indirectly, transfer, sell, assign, mortgage, hypothecate, pledge, create a security interest in or lien upon, encumber, donate, contribute, place in trust (including a voting trust), or otherwise voluntarily or involuntarily dispose of (each, a "Transfer") said Limited Partner's LP TRI Interest

23. Authority of General Partner to Vary Tax Allocations; Tax Matters Partner.

(a) It is the intent of the Partners that each Partner's distributive share of taxable income or tax loss, and of each item of income, gain, loss, preference, deduction, or credit entering into the computation thereof, shall be determined and allocated in accordance with this Agreement to the fullest extent permitted by Section 704(b) of the Code. In order to preserve and protect the determinations and allocations provided for in this Agreement, the General Partner is authorized and directed to allocate tax income, gain, loss, preference, deduction, or credit (or any item thereof) arising in any year differently than as may otherwise be provided for in this Agreement to the extent that allocating tax income, gain, loss, preference, deduction, or credit (or any item thereof) in the manner provided for in this Agreement would cause the determinations and allocations of each Partner's distributive share of tax income, gain, loss, preference, deduction, or credit (or item thereof) not to be permitted by Section 704 (b) of the Code and applicable Regulations.

In making any such new allocations the General Partner is authorized to act only after having been advised by counsel to the Partnership and the accountants for the Partnership that in their opinion, under Section 704 (b) of the Code and applicable Regulations, (i) the new allocation is necessary, and (ii) the new allocation is the minimum modification of the allocations otherwise provided for in this Agreement necessary in order to assure that, either in the current year or in any preceding year, each Partner's distributive share of tax income, gain, loss, preference, deduction, or credit (or item thereof) is determined and allocated in accordance with this Agreement to the fullest extent permitted by Section 704 (b) of the Code and applicable Regulations.

If the General Partner is required to make any new allocation in a manner less favorable to the Limited Partners than is otherwise provided for in the Agreement, the General Partner is authorized and directed, insofar as she is advised by counsel and the accountants for the Partnership that it is permitted by Section 704 (b) of the Code and applicable Regulations, to allocate tax income, gain, loss, preference, deduction, or credit (or item thereof) arising in later years in a manner so as to bring the allocations of tax income, gain, loss, preference, deduction, or credit (or item thereof) to the Limited Partners as near as possible to the allocations otherwise contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) The General Partner is hereby designated as Tax Matters Partner of the Partnership, as provided in the Regulations pursuant to Section 6231 of the Code. Each Partner, by the execution of this Agreement, consents to such designation of the Tax Matters Partner and agrees to execute, certify, acknowledge, deliver, swear to, file and record at the appropriate public offices such documents as may be necessary or appropriate to evidence such consent. The Tax Matters Partner is hereby authorized, but not required:

(i) to enter into any settlement with the Internal Revenue Service or the Secretary of the Treasury (the "Secretary") with respect to any tax audit or judicial review, in which agreement the Tax Matters Partner may expressly state that such agreement shall bind the other partners, except that such settlement agreement shall not bind any Partner who (within the time prescribed pursuant to the Code and applicable Regulations) files a statement with the Secretary provided that the Tax Matters Partner shall not have the authority to enter into a settlement agreement on the behalf of such Partner;

(ii) in the event that a notice of final administrative judgment at the Partnership level of any item required to be taken into account by a Partner for tax purposes a "final judgment") is mailed to the Tax Matters Partner, to seek judicial review of such final adjustment, including the filing of a petition for readjustment with the Tax Court, the District Court of the United States for the district in which the Partnership's principal place of business is located, or the United States Claims Court;

(iii) to intervene in any action brought by any other Partner for judicial review of a final adjustment;

(iv) to file a request for an administrative adjustment with the Secretary at any time and, if any part of such request is not allowed by the Secretary, to file a petition for judicial review with respect to such request;

(v) to enter into an agreement with the Internal Revenue Service to extend the period for assessing any tax which is attributable to any item required to be taken into account by a Partner for tax purposes, or an item affected by such item; and

(vi) to take any other action on behalf of the Partners or the Partnership in connection with any administrative or judicial tax proceeding to the extent permitted by applicable law or regulations.

24. Agreement in Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

25. Rules of Construction. Each paragraph of this Agreement shall be considered severable, and if for any reason any paragraph or paragraphs herein are determined to be invalid and contrary to any existing or future laws, such invalidity shall not impair the operation or affect the portions of this Agreement which are valid.

26. Headings. Headings contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement or the intent of any provisions hereof.

27. Creditors. None of the provisions of this Agreement shall be for the benefit of or enforceable by any creditor of the Partnership, as creditor, or for the benefit of any other individual, corporation or entity.

28. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the parties pertaining to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements and understandings of the parties in connection therewith. No covenant, representation or condition not expressed in this Agreement shall affect or be effective to interpret, change or restrict the express provisions of this Agreement.

29. Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine, neuter, singular and plural as the identity of the person or persons may require.

30. Binding Effect. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of, and be binding upon, the parties hereto and their respective heirs, successors, executors, administrators, legal representatives and permitted assigns.

31. Further Assurances. Each Partner agrees to do such further acts and to execute such documents as may be reasonably requested in furtherance of, and to carry out and implement the purposes of, this Agreement and the transactions contemplated herein.

32. Amendment. This Agreement may not be modified except by a writing signed by Partners holding a majority in interest of the Partnership; in the event such majority in interest included only the Limited Partners -- the consent of the General Partner shall be required as well.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed and delivered this Agreement, effective on the day and year first written above.

Plaintiff,

- against -

DALIA GENDER, SAGI GENDER, LEAH FANG, D & K GP LLC, and TPR INVESTMENT ASSOCIATES, INC.,

Defendants.

Index No.: 109749/09

SECOND AMENDED VERIFIED COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Orly Genger in her individual capacity and on behalf of the Orly Genger 1993 Trust (both in its individual capacity and on behalf of D & K Limited Partnership), by her attorneys, Zeichner Ellman & Krause LLP, alleges, upon information and belief, for her Second Amended Verified Complaint against the defendants in this action as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. As described below, Dalia and Sagi Genger, together with various business entities controlled by them and Leah Fang, engaged in a fraud and conspiracy designed to completely loot the Orly Genger 1993 Trust (the "Orly Trust") of its value. The defendants' various acts of self-dealing, material misrepresentations, and material omissions, in breach of their respective fiduciary duties and in violation of New York law, injured Orly Genger, the Orly Trust, and D & K Limited Partnership.

in TPR, from challenge or diminution in value.

36. In addition, Sagi owes fiduciary duties to Orly arising from the close relationship of trust and confidence between him and his sister. Orly reposed complete trust, confidence and reliance upon her brother Sagi to protect both her interests and her Trust's interests, including her Trust's ownership interests in TPR and the TRI Shares, and to alert her to anything that may adversely affect her or her Trust's assets.

E. Dalia Gives Sagi Complete Control of TPR

37. On October 30, 2004, Dalia, as 52.96% owner of TPR, entered into a shareholder agreement with TPR, concerning the future management of the company. Pursuant to this shareholder agreement (attached hereto as Exhibit 6), Dalia gave D&K, which owned 49% of TPR, the authority to appoint one board member to TPR's two-member board of directors. Sagi used his managerial control over D&K to appoint himself as D&K's representative on TPR's board. In addition, the shareholder agreement appointed Sagi as CEO of TPR. As TPR's majority shareholder, Dalia named herself as TPR's remaining board member.

38. Sometime in 2007, Sagi stripped Dalia of her majority interest in TPR by selling a 2% interest in TPR to Rochelle Fang, his mother-in-law. At the time of the sale, TPR's assets were worth between approximately $11,000,000 and $12,000,000, plus the value of the Note.

39. Around the time of her appointment as successor trustee to the Orly Trust in January 2008, Dalia divested herself of the balance of her TPR shares.

40. Through the above-mentioned transactions, Sagi obtained direct control over TPR and its interest in the Note. Notably, Sagi's role as CEO of TPR (the creditor on the Note) is in direct conflict with his role as manager of D&K (the debtor on the Note), whose role was to repay the Note or to contest the Note's enforceability.

41. Moreover, Sagi's dual control over both TPR and D&K directly conflicts with Sagi's and D&K GP's undiluted fiduciary duties to D&K's limited partners, including the Orly Trust, to manage, maintain and protect D&K's assets from challenge or diminution in value. Sagi would later use his dual positions at TPR and D&K to engage in self-dealing in connection with the Note and to damage the Orly Trust and Orly, in violation of his fiduciary duties.

42. Notably, other New York courts have recognized Sagi's willingness to engage in self-dealing, ignore clear conflicts of interest, and collude with his mother, Dalia, to the detriment of the other Genger family members. See Orders and Transcripts attached hereto as Exhibit 7.

F. Fang and then Dalia Gain Control over the Orly Trust

43. In connection with the Settlement Agreement, Dalia required that the Trustees of the Orly Trust and the Sagi Trust (Sash A. Spencer and Lawrence M. Small) resign and be replaced with Sagi's longtime friends, David Parnes and Eric Gribetz. Mr. Gribetz, subsequently retired as trustee without appointing a successor in

TO THE SURROGATE'S COURT, STATE OF NEW YORK COUNTY OF NEW YORK

Petitioner, Orly Genger ("Petitioner" or "Orly"), by her attorneys Cozen O'Connor, respectfully alleges as her Second Amended Verified Petition for Removal of Dalia Genger as Trustee:

1. Orly, domiciled at 1965 Broadway, Apt. 22G, New York, New York 10024, is the current beneficiary of the Orly Genger 1993 Trust dated December 13, 1993 (the "Orly Trust") (annexed hereto as Exhibit A).

2. Dalia Genger, residing at 200 East 65th Street, Apt. 32W, New York, New York 10021 ("Respondent" or "Dalia"), Orly's mother, is the current sole Trustee of the Orly Trust, and was appointed successor Trustee in January 2008.

3. David Parnes residing at 29 Elkachi Street, Tel Aviv, Israel 69497, is the current Trustee of the Sagi Genger 1993 Trust dated December 13, 1993 ("Sagi Trust").

4. The Orly Trust provides for discretionary payments of income and principal to Orly during her lifetime with the remainder to be distributed to her descendants, per stirpes. If Orly dies leaving no descendants, the remainder of the trust property is to be distributed to the Sagi Trust.

5. Based upon the allegations contained herein, Petitioner requests that this Court provide the following relief:

(a) Respondent and/or her counsel during the pendency of this proceeding are required to give notice by overnight mail to Petitioner's Counsel of any (1) offer to purchase the Orly Trust's 19.3% interest in TRI within ten (10) days of receiving such offer; and (2) act by Respondent, her agents, and all other persons acting on her behalf to assign, mortgage, pledge, redeem, encumber, sell, or otherwise alter the Orly Trust's interest at least 10 days prior to such act in accordance with Judge Troy K. Webber's Order dated July 1, 2009 affirmed on August 18, 2009, and stipulated to by the parties' respective counsel. (Annexed hereto as Exhibit B);

(b) Respondent and/or her counsel during the pendency of this proceeding are required to give notice by overnight mail to Petitioner's Counsel of any attempt to vote any TRI shares held by the Orly Trust for any purpose, including, without limitation, in any election of TRI's directors, with such notice being given at least ten (10) days prior to such attempt being made in accordance with the Stipulation signed by the Parties and the Stipulation withdrawing the Order to Show Cause signed July 16, 2010 by their respective counsel both dated September 8, 2010 (both Stipulations are annexed hereto as Exhibit C);

(c) remove Respondent as Trustee of the Orly Trust for breaching her fiduciary duties, wasting, dissipating and looting the assets of the Orly Trust, imprudently managing and injuring the property committed to her charge; for concocting a scheme with Sagi Genger to strip the Orly Trust of its two most valuable assets: (a) an indirect interest in 49% of defendant TPR Investment Associates, Inc. ("TPR"), a closely held family corporation; and (b) 1,102.80 shares of common stock of Trans-Resources, Inc. ("TRI") (the "TRI Shares")¹, another closely held corporation; for allowing a foreclosure upon the Orly Trust's indirect 49% interest in TPR pursuant to a promissory note which, by mutual understanding and agreement between the Genger family members and TPR was never to be collected and did nothing to preserve Orly's rights or interest at the foreclosure sale; for colluding with defendants Sagi Genger and D&K GP LLC ("D&K GP") to enter into various agreements that would allow D&K GP to "mortgage, hypothecate, pledge, create a security interest in or lien upon, or otherwise encumber [the Orly Trust's TRI Shares]" in connection with the above-mentioned promissory note without giving any notice to Orly, the Orly Trust's beneficiary; and for failing to protect the Orly Trust by not appearing or appealing the final Judgment Order of V.C. Leo E. Strine, Jr., Delaware Chancery Court Civil Action Number 3994-VCS;

(d) surcharge Respondent in the amount of the loss of the value of Orly's interest in TPR and TRI, as determined by the Court and awarding the Petitioner costs and attorneys' fees;

(e) appoint Michael D. Grohman, Esq., as successor trustee;

(f) waive any requirement that Petitioner post an undertaking; and

(g) grant Petitioner such further relief deemed necessary or proper.

6. To assist the Court in perceiving the severity of Respondent's conduct, the following is an overview of the facts supporting this Petition.

I. OVERVIEW

7. Arie and Dalia were married on July 23, 1967, in a ceremony held in Israel. In 2004, however, their marriage ended in divorce. Prior to 1993, while Dalia and Arie were married, Dalia and Arie formed D & K LP (“D & K”), a family-owned limited partnership whose name was shorthand for “Dalia and Kids.” At the time of its formation, Dalia, the general partner, held a 4% interest, and Orly and Sagi, the limited partners, each held a 48% interest.

8. In December 1993, Dalia and Arie also established identical irrevocable inter vivos trusts for the benefit of each of their children: the Orly Trust and the Sagi Trust. For estate-planning purposes, Dalia and Arie funded each trust with a $600,000 gift. The intent behind the trusts was to ensure that both children received property of equal value. Sash A. Spencer and Lawrence M. Small were named Co-Trustees of both trusts and remained Co-Trustees until the Genger’s divorce. After the Trusts were funded, Orly and Sagi each assigned their 48% interests in D & K to their Trusts.

9. At the same time in December 1993, D & K purchased 240 shares of common stock (constituting 49% of the outstanding shares) in TPR for $10,200,000. The shares were purchased with $600,000 from each of the Orly Trust and the Sagi Trust and $50,000 from Dalia, totaling $1,250,000, and the balance was satisfied with a recourse $8,950,000 promissory note (the “Note”) (a copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit E). Pursuant to the Note, principal, together with accrued interest, was to be repaid by D & K in annual installments over ten years. The Note was secured by a pledge of the 240 TPR shares owned by D & K. Each of the Trusts and Dalia assumed liability on the Note in proportion to its/her direct interest in D & K. Accordingly, each of the Orly and Sagi Trusts assumed a 48% liability on the Note and acquired a 23.52% indirect interest in TPR and Dalia assumed a 4% liability on the Note and a 1.96% indirect interest in TPR. Payments were made on the Note until 1999, at which time D & K stopped making payments with the implied consent of the interested parties.

10. At the time of the above-described transaction, Arie owned the remaining 51% of TPR, which held investments in various securities, including TRI common stock, as well as its interest in the Note. As of March 30, 2001, TPR held a 52.85% interest in TRI. The remaining minority interest in TRI (47.15%) was owned by various entities controlled directly and indirectly by Jules and Eddie Trump (the “Trump Group”).

11. On October 26, 2004, Dalia and Arie entered into a Stipulation and Agreement of Settlement as a final settlement of their divorce (the “Settlement Agreement”) (annexed hereto as Exhibit F). Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, Dalia received, inter alia, Arie’s 51% interest in TPR and retained her 4% interest in D & K. TPR’s 52.85% interest in TRI was transferred to Arie and the Trusts as follows: (i) 13.99% to Arie, (ii) 19.43% to the Orly Trust, and (iii) 19.43% to the Sagi Trust. The Orly Trust and the Sagi Trust each granted Arie an irrevocable lifetime voting proxy over their TRI shares (annexed hereto as Exhibit G). Therefore, after October 29, 2004, Arie and the two Trusts held a controlling interest in TRI, and TPR no longer owned any TRI common stock.

12. In connection with the divorce settlement, Dalia took measures to cede management of D & K and TPR to her son Sagi. On October 21, 2004, days before signing the Settlement Agreement, Dalia and Sagi formed D & K GP LLC (“D & K GP”), whose sole purpose was to act as the general partner of D & K. Dalia exchanged her 4% interest in D & K and $1.00 for a 99% membership interest in D & K GP. Sagi purchased a 1% membership interest in D & K GP for $1.00. Pursuant to D & K GP’s Limited Liability Agreement (annexed hereto as Exhibit H), Sagi was given the power to select a manager of D & K GP whose function would be to control D & K’s assets. Sagi selected himself to act as manager; thus, Dalia effectively handed Sagi the authority to control D & K and its assets. Also, by forming D & K GP, Dalia and Sagi shielded themselves from any personal liability stemming from D & K, including any personal liability related to the Note. This left the Trusts solely liable on the Note.

13. On October 30, 2004, Dalia entered into a shareholder agreement with TPR that provided for the management of TPR. Specifically, pursuant to the shareholder agreement (annexed hereto as Exhibit I), D & K, which owned 49% of TPR, was given authority to appoint one board member to the TPR board. Sagi, as the managing partner of D & K, appointed himself as a board member of TPR. As the majority owner of TPR, Dalia was named as the other board member. In addition, the shareholder agreement appointed Sagi as Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”) of TPR. Accordingly, Dalia essentially ceded control of TPR to Sagi, just as she had done with D & K.

14. Below, for the Court’s convenience, is a side-by-side summary of Arie’s, Dalia’s, the Orly Trust’s, and the Sagi Trust’s interests in TPR before and after Arie’s and Dalia’s divorce.²

TPR OWNERSHIP BEFORE AND AFTER DIVORCE

Arie Genger	51.00%	0%
Dalia Genger	1.96%	52.96%
Orly Trust	23.52%	23.52%
Sagi Trust	23.52%	23.52%
TOTAL	100%	100%

² For the Court’s convenience, the chart annexed hereto as Exhibit J provides a summary of Arie’s, Dalia’s, the Orly Trust’s, and the Sagi Trust’s ownership interests in TPR, TRI, and D & K as of October 26, 2004 – i.e., the date that Arie and Dalia executed the Settlement Agreement.

15. In connection with the Settlement Agreement, Dalia required that the Trustees of the Orly Trust and the Sagi Trust (Messrs. Sash and Small) resign and be replaced with friends of Sagi. Numerous successor trustees were appointed to the Orly Trust and the Sagi Trust, all of whom were affiliated with Sagi in one way or another. David Parnes and Eric Gribetz (Sagi's longtime friends) and Leah Fang (Sagi's sister-in-law) were appointed as successor trustees to the Orly Trust, and Messrs. Parnes and Gribetz, Rochelle Fang (Sagi's mother-in-law), and Mr. Parnes again, were appointed successor trustees of the Sagi Trust.

16. On August 2, 2006, Sagi, as part of his managerial role in D & K GP, D & K, and TPR, assigned the Note – which then had an approximate value of $11,000,000 as a result of accrued interest – to Mr. Parnes for only $12,000. (A copy of the Memorandum dated August 2, 2006, assigning the Note is annexed hereto as Exhibit K) The assignment stated that D & K “denied enforceability of the Note” (see Exhibit K annexed hereto). Sagi signed the assignment on behalf of both TPR, as the maker, and D & K, as the holder. Dalia was copied on the memorandum assigning the note, but neither Orly, the Orly Trust, nor the then-Trustee of the Orly Trust received copies of the memorandum. At the time of this assignment, Mr. Parnes was acting as trustee of both the Orly Trust and the Sagi Trust. Shortly after the assignment, Mr. Parnes resigned as Trustee of the Orly Trust in recognition of the inherent conflict he faced in that role.

17. On November 23, 2007, Leah Fang, Sagi Genger's sister-in-law, then sole Trustee of both the Orly and Sagi Trusts, and Sagi Genger, acting in his capacity as manager of D&K GP, executed an “Amended and Restated Limited Partnership Agreement of D&K Limited Partnership (the “D&K Agreement”). Among other things, the D&K Agreement purported to grant D&K GP authority to “mortgage, hypothecate, pledge, create a security interest in or lien upon, or otherwise encumber [the Orly Trust's TRI Shares] for the benefit of [D&K] or that of third parties, in connection with the Note.” See D&K Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit L, p.11.

18. By its terms, the D&K Agreement does not require D&K GP (i.e., Sagi) to give notice to anyone, including Orly or the Orly Trust, if it decided to encumber the Orly Trust's TRI Shares in any way.

19. Upon information and belief, the Orly Trust received no consideration and no direct or indirect benefit in exchange for the substantial concession it gave to D&K GP under the D&K Agreement. Indeed, the D&K Agreement was merely an instrument created for the specific purpose of encumbering the Orly Trust and its beneficiary, Orly with debt.

20. Leah Fang never informed Orly of the existence of the D & K Agreement. In January 2008, Dalia was appointed successor trustee of the Orly Trust, despite Orly's objection. At that time she did nothing to attempt to amend Exhibit L nor did she do anything to advise Orly as beneficiary that the prior trustee had granted D&K GP authority to encumber the Orly Trust's TRI Shares. By that time, as a result of Dalia's granting Sagi control of TPR and D & K, and through the appointment of his friends and relatives as successor trustees of the Trusts, Sagi effectively had obtained control over the assets held by all of D & K, TPR, the Sagi Trust, and the Orly Trust.

21. On or about January 31, 2009, only weeks after making sworn statements to the Surrogate Court that she intended to protect the Orly Trust and its assets, Dalia executed a document entitled "Meeting of Partners of D&K LP – Jan. 31, 2009 & Agreement (the "Meeting Agreement")." Like the D&K Agreement, the Meeting Agreement purported to grant D&K GP (i.e., Sagi) authority to encumber the Orly Trust's TRI Shares:

The partners wish to clarify that the authority vested in the General Partner to make limited partners' assets subject to a pledge shall be done in substantially the same manner in which TPR Investment Associates, Inc. shares were pledged in conjunction with the aforementioned note. However, the General Partner shall be authorized to sign for the partnership and/or each individual partner.

See Meeting Agreement ¶3 (attached hereto as Exhibit M)

22. In another naked act of self-dealing in violation of Dalia's fiduciary duties as Trustee, the Meeting Agreement also purports to:

Indemnify and provide a general release from any claim or right at equity, law, or contract or otherwise the current and former general partner, its officers, the partnership's holdings (including TPR Investment Associates, Inc.) and the officers of its holdings to fullest extent permitted in connection with any claim by the partnership and/or its partners. Irrespective of the above, nothing herein shall serve to release or indemnify Arie Genger, William Dowd, Lawrence Small or Edward Klimerman.

See Meeting Agreement, Exhibit M, ¶1.

23. Upon information and belief, the Orly Trust received no consideration and no direct or indirect benefit in exchange for the substantial concessions Dalia, acting as trustee, gave to D&K GP under the Meeting Agreement. Indeed, the Meeting Agreement, like the D&K Agreement, was merely another instrument created for the specific purpose of depleting the Orly Trust and its beneficiary, Orly of its assets.

24. Both the D&K Agreement and the Meeting Agreement were negotiated and executed without ever informing the Orly Trust's beneficiary, Orly. Moreover, Dalia never subsequently informed Orly of the existence of either agreement, even though Orly made repeated requests for information about the Orly Trust and its assets during Dalia's tenure as sole Trustee. Likewise, although Dalia has given sworn statements to the Surrogate Court regarding the Orly Trust, she never disclosed the existence of either the D&K Agreement or the Meeting Agreement to either Surrogate Roth or her successor Surrogate Webber. Basically, Dalia, as Orly's mother and trustee gave Sagi total control to pilfer the Orly Trust assets for his own use and benefits. Dalia's breach of fiduciary duty resulted in Sagi having the purported power and ability with Dalia's consent and knowledge to sell the Orly Trust's TRI's Share for one-third (1/3) of the price that he had sold the Sagi Trust TRI Shares.

25. Sometime in 2007, Sagi sold a 2% interest in TPR to Rochelle Fang. This sale effectively stripped Dalia of her majority interest in TPR giving Sagi unfettered control of TPR, in addition to his control of D & K and D & K GP. In January 2008, when Dalia was appointed successor trustee of the Orly Trust, she completely divested herself of the balance of her TPR shares. Dalia has not informed either the Court or Orly as to when she transferred her TPR interest.

26. On August 22, 2008, unbeknownst to Orly, Rochelle Fang, who had been appointed Trustee of the Sagi Trust, attempted to sell the Sagi Trust's 19.43% interest in TRI to the Trump Group, who already owned 47.15% of TRI's outstanding shares, for $26,715,416. This sale purportedly transferred control of TRI from Arie to the Trump Group who thereafter purported to hold 66.58% of TRI's outstanding common stock.³ In connection with the supposed sale, Sagi and David Parnes were given seats on TRI's board of directors. This sale, which was consummated after Dalia was appointed successor trustee of the Orly Trust, has diluted and diminished the value of the Orly Trust's interest in TRI.

27. Dalia, while serving as Trustee of the Orly Trust, made no effort to prevent the sale or to protect the value of the Orly Trust's interest in TRI. Fearing that Dalia would continue to neglect her duty to protect the Orly Trust's assets, on January 10, 2009, Petitioner wrote a letter (annexed hereto as Exhibit N) to her mother stating that "for now, and until further notice, it is my strong desire to retain all of the shares of TRI that are currently in the Orly Trust, and I direct you not to sell them." Dalia refused to agree not to dispose of the TRI shares.

³ The validity of the sale was at issue in litigation in Delaware Chancery Court Civil Action Number 3994-VCS, in which the Court's decision is currently pending appeal. The parties to the action are Arie Genger, TRI, and various entities affiliated with the Trump Group. The Orly Trust had not appeared in the action. Although, neither Orly Genger nor the Orly Trust were ever a party to this proceeding, the court ruling applies to her trust's interest in TRI and TPR. In that action, the Trump Group claimed to have bought the shares either from the Sagi Trust or from TPR – thus, the approximately $27 million purportedly paid by the Trump Group somehow belongs to the Sagi Trust or to TPR, and not the Sagi or Orly Trust.

II. THE EVIDENCE DISCOVERED BY PETITIONER ON JUNE 1, 2009, AND RESPONDENT'S EXECUTION OF THE MEETING AGREEMENT AND REFUSAL TO PROTECT THE ORLY TRUST'S ASSETS IN THE DELAWARE CHANCERY COURT PROCEEDING, REQUIRES THE IMMEDIATE REMOVAL OF DALIA AS TRUSTEE

28. In February 2008, Orly applied to this Court to designate a Trustee, or in the alternative to appoint a special trustee, claiming that Dalia and all of the preceding successor trustees of the Orly Trust were improperly appointed and had no authority to act on behalf of the Orly Trust. Orly also alleged wrongful dealings by Dalia as Trustee of the Orly Trust. In denying the application without prejudice, this Court stated that Orly had made allegations without sufficient supporting evidence and suggested that Orly commence an SCPA § 2201 proceeding to obtain the necessary evidence and then renew her application. (A copy of the Court's decision is annexed hereto as Exhibit O.)

29. On May 14, 2009, as a prerequisite to the SCPA § 2201 application, Orly's counsel sent Dalia Genger a letter (annexed hereto as Exhibit P) requesting documents related to the Orly Trust's assets. Soon thereafter, Orly's counsel was notified that Dalia had retained Robert A. Meister, Esq., of Pedowitz & Meister, LLP, and Orly's counsel therefore forwarded a copy of the May 14th letter to Mr. Meister.

30. On June 1, 2009, Mr. Meister responded to Orly's document demand by advising Orly's counsel that the Orly Trust no longer owned any interest in TPR. According to the letter, Sagi, acting as CEO of TPR, had foreclosed on the Note and had sold D & K's 240 shares of TPR for $2,220,000. (A copy of the Letter dated June 1, 2009, is annexed hereto as Exhibit Q.) Before that time, Dalia had neither advised nor notified Orly that Sagi had foreclosed on the Note,⁴ nor advised Orly that Sagi had sold the TPR shares at auction. Thus, upon receipt of Mr. Meister's letter, Orly learned for the first time that:

⁴ While the Note had not been serviced since 1999, TPR had not foreclosed on the Note between 1999 and 2008 based upon the Genger Family's agreement at the Note's inception that foreclosure on the Note would upset the estate-planning goals underlying the Note.

(a) On August 31, 2008, Sagi, acting as CEO of TPR, notified himself as the general manager of D & K, that D & K was in default of the Note and declared that unless the entire unpaid principal amount of the Note was paid immediately, TPR would sell, at auction, the 240 shares pledged as collateral. (A copy of the Notification dated August 31, 2008, is annexed hereto as Exhibit R.)

(b) Thereafter, Sagi, again acting as CEO of TPR, purported to notify D & K (of which he remained the managing partner) that D & K's 240 shares of TPR stock would be publicly auctioned to the highest bidder on February 27, 2009, and that the money received from the sale would be used to reduce the outstanding debt. (A copy of the Notification is annexed hereto as Exhibit S.) Sagi purported to notify the interested parties of the sale by publishing notice of the sale in the New York Post in October 2008 and February 2009. At all relevant times Sagi had Orly's and Dalia's contact information. Despite this, Orly was never informed of the impending sale.

(c) On February 27, 2009, TPR (still controlled by Sagi) foreclosed on the 240 shares of TPR and "auctioned" the shares. Not coincidentally, the Sagi-controlled TPR purchased the shares at auction for $2,200,000, making no effort to collect on the Note from the Sagi Trust. (See Exhibit T). The proceeds of the sale – i.e., $2,220,000 – were used to decrease D & K's obligations under the Note, leaving a balance of approximately $8,800,000.

31. On June 11, 2009, Orly's counsel sent Mr. Meister a letter asking that Dalia, in accordance with Orly's January 2009 request and in light of the secretive diminution of the Orly Trust's interest in TPR, stipulate in writing that she would not, under any circumstances and until all issues were resolved, sell, transfer, or remove the TRI shares from the Orly Trust. (A copy of the Letter dated June 11, 2009, is annexed hereto as Exhibit U) That same day, Mr. Meister responded to the June 11th letter, but he failed to address the terms of the proposed stipulation. (A copy of Mr. Meister's Letter dated June 11, 2009, is annexed hereto as Exhibit V.)

32. Only many months after this proceeding was commenced, it was discovered that Dalia while serving as Trustee of the Orly Trust had entered into the Meeting Agreement while serving as Orly's trustee (Exhibit M) which authorized D & K GP (Sagi) to encumber the Orly Trust's TRI Shares.

33. Finally and most importantly, the Orly Trust has been adversely effected by the Delaware Chancery Court's opinion which Orly and the Orly Trust were not parties. Dalia, as her Trustee never appeared in the proceeding to protect the assets of the Trust nor has she filed a Notice of Appeal to protect her beneficiary's interest. As a result, Orly has been forced to retain her own Delaware counsel to advise and protect her and the Orly Trust.

A. Dalia Must Be Removed As Trustee Immediately

34. As a result of Dalia's deliberate inaction and collusion with Sagi, Orly's TRI shares (a) may not be an asset of her trust, and if an asset could be sold at a significantly discounted rate and the proceeds may be used to pay her unpaid portion of the Note, (b) may be used as collateral to secure the Orly Trust's unpaid portion of the Note, or (c) may be used to satisfy a Judgment against the Orly Trust. Since Orly's address was known to her brother and her mother at all relevant times, publishing notice of the sale of the TPR shares alone was a clear and deliberate attempt to prohibit Orly from intervening in the foreclosure and the sale. Dalia, who upon information and belief had knowledge of the events as they were transpiring, easily could have given notice of the auction to Orly, but she intentionally chose not to. There is now reason to believe Dalia deliberately remained passive so as to allow Sagi to hijack, sell, or otherwise meddle with the Orly Trust's TPR and TRI shares, even though Orly has specifically advised her mother, in writing, to protect the Trust's ownership interest in the TPR and TRI shares and will not stop harming her daughter's economic interests in the Orly Trust.

35. There is no reason to trust that Dalia will honor her daughter's wishes and instructions since, from the time of her divorce, she has done nothing but ensure that Sagi has complete control over TPR, D & K, and D & K GP, and has allowed Sagi to do as he pleases. At this time, approximately $8,800,000 of the Note remains unsatisfied, and Sagi, as CEO of TPR, has not voided the notice of default. Based upon Dalia's deliberate inaction and failure to protect the Orly Trust's assets to date, there is strong evidence to reasonably conclude that Dalia will not protect the Orly Trust's interest in any assets in the Trust, but rather, will act to benefit herself and Sagi, including by allowing Sagi to obtain any asset in the Orly Trust to satisfy the Orly Trust's unpaid portion of the Note.

36. The fact that Dalia has never appeared or intervened or filed a notice of appeal in the Delaware Action alone is cause for her removal. When added to the information provided to Orly's counsel on June 1, 2009, which confirms Respondent's lack of diligence and disloyal service as Trustee, there are more than sufficient evidence to have Respondent removed as Trustee of the Orly Trust. While serving as Trustee, Dalia intentionally failed to notify Orly that TPR was taking measures to foreclose on the Orly Trust's 23.52% indirect interest in TPR. It was Dalia's duty as a fiduciary of the Orly Trust to be apprised of all activity concerning the Orly Trust and to ensure that Orly received proper notification of the default and auction. Moreover, Dalia actually knew of the foreclosure and the auction, but took no steps to protect the Orly Trust's interest in TPR. Dalia knew of Sagi's plan to foreclose on the Note and sell the TPR shares as early as August 2008; thus, she withheld information concerning the auction from Orly for almost ten months. Dalia did not disclose the foreclosure and share sale until she received the demand letter from Orly's counsel and realized that legal action was imminent and now she has done nothing to protect the Orly Trust assets from the Delaware litigation and in fact may have by her inaction depleted most of the assets of the Orly Trust. Instead of protecting the Orly Trust's and its beneficiary's interests, Dalia sat back and silently watched and supported her son as he stripped the Orly Trust of its indirect interest in TPR.

37. The corporate structure which has intertwined TPR, D & K GP, and D & K's assets, all of which are in some manner controlled by Sagi as a result of Dalia's actions, permits Dalia and Sagi to engage in self-dealing and does not provide for any accountability on either Sagi's or Dalia's part. Unfortunately, the Orly Trust is caught in the middle of Dalia's and Sagi's conspiracy to engage in self-dealing intended to benefit their own interests, while Sagi has been permitted to diminish and dissipate the value of the Orly Trust's assets, including its interests in TPR and TRI. By enriching herself and her son at the expense of her daughter, Dalia is in breach of her fiduciary duties as Trustee of the Orly Trust. It is imperative that Orly have an independent successor trustee appointed who will unbiasedly and loyally protect the Orly Trust's remaining assets, and make every attempt possible to retain the assets that have been reduced in value.

(1) In Direct Conflict With Her Obligations as Fiduciary of The Orly Trust, Dalia Did Nothing To Stop Sagi From Attempting to Sell His Trust's TRI Shares, Which Have Diluted the Value of the Orly Trust's Assets

38. The Sagi Trust's sale of its interest in TRI to the Trump Group for $26,715,416, which occurred after Dalia was appointed successor trustee of the Orly Trust, purportedly transferred control of TRI from Arie to the Trump Group. Assuming if this purported sale has been given effect, then the value of the Orly Trust's assets have significantly diminished since Arie will no longer own a controlling interest in TRI, and thus the Orly Trust would no longer own a portion of the controlling block of TRI shares.

39. Dalia, as a fiduciary of the Orly Trust, was obligated to apprise herself of any transactions that could affect the value of the Orly Trust's shares, and, in fact, Dalia was, upon information and belief, contemporaneously aware of the Sagi Trust sale. But Dalia made no effort to protect the value of the Orly Trust's TRI shares by challenging the proposed sale. Moreover, she has taken no position with regard to the current value of the TRI shares and has taken no measures to protect the Orly Trust's interest in TRI. By remaining passive with respect to the Orly Trust's TRI shares, and indeed colluding with Sagi, Dalia completely ignored the intent behind the establishment of the Orly Trust – to transfer an equal amount of assets to each of the children. Dalia, through her actions and her inaction alike, may have permitted Sagi to secure substantially more value from the Trusts' assets than Orly.

(2) In Direct Conflict With Her Obligations as Fiduciary of The Orly Trust, Dalia Took No Action To Protect the Orly Trust's Interest in TPR

40. Pursuant to the August 2006 memorandum assigning the Note to David Parnes – on which Dalia was copied – Sagi, acting as the managing partner of D & K, took the position that the Note was unenforceable. (See Paragraph 4 of Exhibit K annexed hereto.) In the exact same memorandum, however, Sagi, acting as the CEO of TPR, took the directly contrary position that TPR reserved its right to enforce the Note. (See Paragraph 8 of Exhibit K annexed hereto.)

41. On February 14, 2007, Dalia, who participated in the transaction between Sagi and Mr. Parnes, and in a clear attempt to clean her hands of any impropriety, admitted in a sworn statement to the Court that no one was ever supposed to foreclose on the Note. (See Paragraph 3 of Exhibit W annexed hereto). Additionally, the unpaid Note was the subject of a post-judgment arbitration proceeding between Dalia and Arie, which took place in September 2007. Dalia, who was present at the proceedings, heard Sagi and Mr. Parnes testify that the Note should not be enforced and that Sagi, as CEO of TPR, had no intention of collecting the unpaid portion of the Note. Thus, Dalia knew long before August 2008 that TPR had effectively disclaimed its right to foreclose on the Note.

42. As described above, however, in August 2008 (eleven months later), Sagi sought to enforce the Note. Contrary to the position he had taken under oath at the arbitration, and contrary to the position he had taken as the managing partner of D & K (see Paragraph 4 of Exhibit K attached hereto), Sagi issued a default notice to D & K on behalf of TPR. Dalia, who knew the Note was never intended to be enforced and who previously had sworn to as much, should have immediately sought to block Sagi from foreclosing on the Note and selling the TPR shares. Notwithstanding her knowledge and her previous statements, however, Dalia failed to make any effort to stop Sagi when he engaged in this clear act of self-dealing, even though the Orly Trust had a clear interest in the TPR shares at issue. As a fiduciary of the Orly Trust with prior, as well as continued knowledge, of the TPR foreclosure, TPR's supposed claims against D & K, and D & K's ability to challenge those claims based on prior representations, Dalia had a duty to protect the Orly Trust's indirect ownership of the TPR shares. But instead of taking the proactive measures required of a fiduciary, Dalia did nothing and allowed Sagi to obtain the TPR shares for himself to the detriment of the Orly Trust. Moreover, in connection with her appointment as successor trustee of the Orly Trust in January 2008, Dalia divested herself of her TPR shares (without informing either the Court or Orly as to when she transferred her interest) in a further attempt to distance herself from any attributable wrongdoing. Dalia has contended to this Court that she sold her TPR shares in order to avoid any appearance of impropriety in connection with her appointment as Trustee. Interestingly, however, Dalia has never informed Orly or this Court whether she continues to maintain a 99% interest in D & K GP, the company that controls D & K and, thus, was obligated to service the Note.

43. Additionally, Dalia's failure to act in the face of the foreclosure and sale of TPR stock is especially egregious because she has known since August 2008 that the purported sale of TRI stock to the Trump Group was being challenged in Delaware Chancery Court. She also has known that in that action the Trump Group is asserting that it bought the TRI stock from either the Sagi Trust or TPR. Thus, she has known that, depending on the outcome of the appeal of litigation in Delaware, the Orly Trust could have an interest in the $27 million paid by the Trumps in August 2008 if its interest in TPR were preserved. Accordingly, as trustee of the Orly Trust, she should have been especially vigilant in protecting the Orly Trust's interest in TPR through D & K. But instead, she allowed Sagi to essentially steal the Orly Trust's interest in TPR so that Sagi can attempt to retain the entire $27 million regardless of the outcome of the appeal in Delaware Chancery Court. Indeed, Dalia has done nothing to ensure that the $27,000,000 is preserved, so that it will not be depleted by Sagi pending the outcome of the Delaware appeal. Her inaction in this regard is a blatant violation of her fiduciary duties as trustee.

III. DALIA SHOULD BE SUR-CHARGED IN THE AMOUNT OF THE LOSS OF THE VALUE OF ORLY'S INTEREST IN TPR AS DETERMINED BY THE COURT AND ORLY SHOULD BE AWARDED ATTORNEYS' FEES

44. By failing to take action on behalf of the Orly Trust to prevent Sagi from foreclosing on the Note and selling D & K's TPR shares and through her other actions and inactions described herein, Dalia caused the Orly Trust to lose its interest in TPR and possibly TRI. Accordingly, Dalia should be surcharged in an amount of the loss of the value of Orly's interest in TPR and TRI as determined by the Court and should be required to reimburse the Orly Trust for its attorneys' fees incurred in connection with bringing this action.

IV. MICHAEL D. GROHMAN, ESQ. SHOULD BE APPOINTED AS SUCCESSOR TRUSTEE

45. Based on Dalia's deliberate breach of her fiduciary duties to the Orly Trust, and in light of Dalia's prior nefarious conduct as the Orly Trust's Trustee, this Court should remove Dalia as Trustee and replace her with Michael D. Grohman, Esq. Mr. Grohman is a member of the New York Bar and the head of the Trust and Estates practice group at Duane Morris LLP. Mr Grohman is not acquainted with any members of the Genger family, does not have any interest in TRI, TPR, or D & K, and is willing and prepared to succeed Dalia immediately.

46. No prior application has been made for the relief requested herein.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, based upon the allegations contained herein, Petitioner requests that this Court provide the following relief:

(a) Respondent and/or her counsel during the pendency of this proceeding are required to give notice by overnight mail to Petitioner's Counsel of any (1) offer to purchase the Orly Trust's 19.3% interest in TRI within ten (10) days of receiving such offer; and (2) act by

Respondent, her agents, and all other persons acting on her behalf to assign, mortgage, pledge, redeem, encumber, sell, or otherwise alter the Orly Trust's interest at least 10 days prior to such act in accordance with Judge Troy K. Webber's Order dated July 1, 2009 affirmed on August 18, 2009, and stipulated to by the parties' respective counsel. (Annexed hereto as Exhibit B);

(b) Respondent and/or her counsel during the pendency of this proceeding are required to give notice by overnight mail to Petitioner's Counsel of any attempt to vote any TRI shares held by the Orly Trust for any purpose, including, without limitation, in any election of TRI's directors, with such notice being given at least ten (10) days prior to such attempt being made in accordance with the Stipulation signed by the Parties and their counsel dated September 8, 2010 (which is annexed hereto as Exhibit C);

(c) remove Respondent as Trustee of the Orly Trust for breaching her fiduciary duties, wasting, dissipating and looting the assets of the Orly Trust, imprudently managing and injuring the property committed to her charge; for concocting a scheme with Sagi Genger to strip the Orly Trust of its two most valuable assets: (a) an indirect interest in 49% of defendant TPR Investment Associates, Inc. ("TPR"), a closely held family corporation; and (b) 1,102.80 shares of common stock of Trans-Resources, Inc. ("TRI") (the "TRI Shares"), another closely held corporation; for allowing a foreclosure upon the Orly Trust's indirect 49% interest in TPR pursuant to a promissory note which, by mutual understanding and agreement between the Genger family members and TPR was never to be collected and did nothing to preserve Orly's rights or interest at the foreclosure sale; for colluding with defendants Sagi Genger and D&K GP LLC ("D&K GP") to enter into various agreements that would allow D&K GP to "mortgage, hypothecate, pledge, create a security interest in or lien upon, or otherwise encumber [the Orly Trust's TRI Shares]" in connection with the above-mentioned promissory note without giving any notice to Orly, the Orly Trust's beneficiary; and for failing to protect the Orly Trust by appearing or appealing the Final Judgment Order of v. C. Leo E. Strine, Jr., Delaware

Chancery Court Civil Action Number 3997-VCS ;

(d) surcharging Respondent by an amount of the loss of the value of Orly's interest in TPR and TRI, as determined by the Court and awarding Petitioner her costs and attorneys' fees;

(e) appointing Michael D. Grohman, Esq., as successor trustee;

(f) waiving any requirement that Petitioner post an undertaking; and

(g) granting Petitioner any other relief it deems necessary and proper.

TRUST AGREEMENT dated December 13, 1993, between ARIE GINGER (now residing at 1067 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York), as Grantor, and LAWRENCE M. SMALL (now residing at 2804 Woodland Drive, Washington, D.C. 20008) and SASH A. SPENCER (now residing at 251 Crandon Boulevard, Townhouse 164, Key Biscayne, Florida 33149), as Trustees.

The Grantor hereby transfers to the Trustees, and the Trustees hereby acknowledge receipt of, the sum of Six Hundred Thousand Dollars ($600,000.00), to be held, administered and disposed of in accordance with the provisions of Article FIRST hereof. Said sum and any other property that may be received by the Trustees pursuant to the provisions of Article FOURTH hereof, and all investments and reinvestments thereof, and all proceeds thereof which constitute principal, are hereinafter collectively called "principal."

This Trust Agreement shall be known as the "Orly Genger 1993 Trust Agreement" and the trust created by Article FIRST hereof shall be known as the "Orly Genger 1993 Trust."

FIRST: Disposition of Principal and Income
During the Life of the Grantor's Daughter, ORLY GENDER.

A. The Trustees shall hold, manage, invest and reinvest the principal of the trust created by this Article, IN TRUST, and, so long as the Grantor's daughter, ORLY GENDER, shall live, the Trustees are authorized and empowered to pay such part, parts or all, if any, of the net income of the trust created by this Article (hereinafter referred to in this Article as "Orly's Trust") to, or apply such part, parts or all, if any, of such net income for the use or benefit of, such one or more of the following individuals living from time to time in such equal or unequal amounts or proportions, and at such time or times, as the Trustees, in their discretion, shall determine:

1. The Grantor's daughter, ORLY GENDER.
2. Each descendant of ORLY GENDER.

The Trustees shall accumulate all income of Orly's Trust not so paid to or applied and, at least annually, add such net income to the principal of Orly's Trust.

In making such distributions, the Trustees are requested (but they are not directed) to limit the total amount of the distributions made to any descendant of ORLY GENDER with respect to any calendar year to the amount necessary to increase such descendant's taxable income for United States income tax purposes for such year to the greatest amount that shall still result in such descendant not being subject to United States income taxes at the highest marginal rate in effect for such year, after taking into account all of such descendant's other income and deductions for such year.

B. The Trustees are authorized and empowered to pay to, or apply for the use or benefit of, the Grantor's said daughter such part, parts or all, if any, of the principal of Orly's Trust, and at such time or times, as said Trustees, in their discretion, shall determine, without regard to the interest in the trust of any other person and without regard to the fact that any such payment or application may result in the termination of Orly's Trust.

C. Upon the death of the Grantor's said daughter, the Trustees shall pay the then principal of Orly's Trust, together with all net income thereof then accrued but not yet collected, and collected but not yet disposed of, as follows:

1. The Trustees shall pay one-half (1/2) of such income and principal, in such equal or unequal amounts or proportions, to or for the use or benefit of such one or more of the descendants of the Grantor's said daughter, and upon such terms, conditions and trusts, if any, as the Grantor's said daughter, by a provision in her Will expressly referring to this Article of this Trust Agreement, shall validly direct and appoint. If, or to the extent that, the Grantor's said daughter shall fail so validly to direct and appoint such principal and income, the Trustees, at the death of the Grantor's said daughter, shall pay the same, per stirpes, to such of the descendants of the Grantor's said daughter as shall survive her, subject, however, to the provisions of Article SECOND hereof, or, if no descendant of the Grantor's said daughter shall survive her, per stirpes, to such of the Grantor's descendants as shall so survive, or, if no descendant of the Grantor shall so survive, in accordance with the provisions of Article THIRD hereof.

2. The Trustees shall pay one-half (1/2) of such income and principal, per stirpes, to such of the descendants of the Grantor's said daughter as shall survive her, subject, however, to the provisions of Article SECOND hereof, or, if no descendant of the Grantor's said daughter shall survive her, per stirpes, to such of the Grantor's descendants as shall so survive, or, if no descendant of the Grantor shall so survive, in accordance with the provisions of Article THIRD hereof

3. If, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 1 or paragraph 2 of this Section C, the Trustees are directed to pay a per stirpital share of such income and principal to a descendant of the Grantor, and if at the time the Trustees are so directed there shall be in existence a trust for such descendant under a trust agreement between Arie Genger, as grantor, and Lawrence M. Small and Sash A. Spencer, as trustees, executed on the date hereof and known as the "Sagi Genger 1993 Trust Agreement," the Trustees shall not pay such per stirpital share to such descendant but shall instead pay such per stirpital share to the trustees then acting under said trust agreement, to be disposed of by them pursuant to the provisions of the trust for such descendant under said trust agreement.

D. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if any Trustee hereunder shall be one of the potential income beneficiaries of Orly's Trust, such Trustee shall not, in his or her capacity as such a Trustee, have any voice or vote or otherwise participate in any decision pertaining to the payment or application of the income or principal of Orly's Trust to or for the use or benefit of him or her in his or her capacity as a beneficiary of such trust or to or for the use or benefit of any person whom he or she has an obligation to support, and, in each such event, the other Trustee or Trustees shall make all decisions relating to such trust that pertain to such matters.

SECOND: Continuing Trusts for Descendants of the Grantor's Daughter, ORLY GINGER.

A. If, under any provision of this Trust Agreement, any property is directed to be paid to a descendant of the Grantor's daughter, ORLY GINGER, subject to the provisions of this Article, such property shall not be distributed or paid to such descendant. Instead, the Trustees shall continue to hold such property, IN TRUST (in a separate trust for each such descendant which is referred to in this Article as "such descendant's trust"; provided, however, that if there shall be property so directed to be paid on more than one occasion to any such descendant, all such property shall be held in a single trust for such descendant), and, so long as such descendant shall live before attaining the age of twenty-one (21) years, the Trustees, other than such descendant if he or she shall be a Trustee hereunder, are authorized and empowered to pay to, or apply for the use or benefit of, such descendant, such part, parts or all, if any, of the net income of such descendant's trust, and at such time or times, as said Trustees, in their discretion, shall determine, and the Trustees shall accumulate the balance of such net income, if any, and, at least annually, add it to the principal of such descendant's trust; and, so long as such descendant shall live after attaining the age of twenty-one (21) years, the Trustees shall pay to such descendant all of the net income of such descendant's trust in at least quarterly installments.

B. The Trustees, other than such descendant if he or she shall be a Trustee hereunder, are authorized and empowered to pay to, or apply for the use or benefit of, such descendant, such part, parts or all, if any, of the principal of such descendant's trust, and at such time or times, as said Trustees, in their discretion, shall determine, without regard to the interest in the trust of any other person and without regard to the fact that any such payment or application may result in the termination of the trust.

C. Upon the death of such descendant (hereinafter referred to in this Article as "such deceased descendant"), the Trustees shall pay the then principal of such deceased descendant's trust, together with all net income thereof accrued but not yet collected, and collected but not yet disposed of, as follows:

1. The Trustees shall pay one-half (1/2) of such income and principal, in such equal or unequal amounts or proportions, to or for the use or benefit of such one or more of the descendants of such deceased descendant, and upon such terms, conditions and trusts, if any, as such deceased descendant, by a provision in his or her Will expressly referring to this Article of this Trust Agreement, shall validly direct and appoint. If, or to the extent that, such deceased descendant shall fail so expressly and so validly to direct and appoint such principal and income, the Trustees shall, at the death of such deceased descendant, pay the same, per stirpes, to such of the descendants of such deceased descendant as shall survive such deceased descendant, subject, however, to the provisions of this Article, or, if no such descendant shall so survive, per stirpes, to such of the descendants as shall so survive of the ancestor of such deceased descendant closest in degree of relationship to such deceased descendant who (i) shall have descendants who shall so survive and (ii) shall have been a descendant of the Grantor or shall have been the Grantor, subject, however, to the provisions of this Article, or, if no such descendant shall so survive, in accordance with the provisions of Article THIRD hereof.

2. The Trustees shall pay one-half (1/2) of such income and principal, per stirpes, to such of the descendants of such deceased descendant as shall survive such deceased descendant, subject, however, to the provisions of this Article, or, if no such descendant shall so survive, per stirpes, to such of the descendants as shall so survive of the ancestor of such deceased descendant closest in degree of relationship to such deceased descendant who (i) shall have descendants who shall so survive and (ii) shall have been a descendant of the Grantor or shall have been the Grantor, subject, however, to the provisions of this Article, or, if no such descendant shall so survive, in accordance with the provisions of Article THIRD hereof.

3. If, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 1 or paragraph 2 of this Section C, the Trustees are directed to pay a per stirpital share of such income and principal to a descendant of the Grantor subject to the provisions of this Article, and if at the time the Trustees are so directed there shall be in existence a trust for such descendant under a trust agreement between Arie Genger, as grantor, and Lawrence M. Small and Sash A. Spencer, as trustees, executed on the date hereof and known as the "Sagi Genger 1993 Trust Agreement," the Trustees shall not pay such per stirpital share to such descendant subject to the provisions of this Article but shall instead pay such per stirpital share to the trustees then acting under said trust agreement, to be disposed of by them pursuant to the provisions of the trust for such descendant under said trust agreement.

D. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, each trust created by the terms of this Article shall terminate, if not sooner terminated, upon the expiration of twenty-one (21) years after the death of the last surviving descendant of the Grantor's parents, SHARGA GENDER and DORA GENDER, who shall have been in being on the date hereof; and the Trustees shall thereupon pay the then principal of any trust terminated in accordance with the provisions of this Section, together with all net income thereof accrued but not yet collected and collected but not yet disposed of, to the descendant of the Grantor with respect to whom such trust is being held.

THIRD: Disposition of Property if No Descendant of the Grantor is Living.

A. As used in this Article:

1. The words "such time" shall mean the time as of which any property is directed to be paid in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

2. The term "Qualified Charitable Organization" shall mean an organization that shall be qualified as an organization to which contributions and bequests are deductible for both United States income tax, gift tax and estate tax purposes under the provisions of Section 170, Section 2522 and Section 2055 of the Internal Revenue Code.

B. If, under any provision of this Trust Agreement, any property is directed to be paid in accordance with the provisions of this Article, the Trustees shall pay such property as follows:

1. If the Grantor, the Grantor's spouse and/or any one or more descendants of the Grantor shall have caused there to be created a foundation known as The Genger Foundation, and if at such time said Foundation shall be in existence and shall be a Qualified Charitable Organization, then, in such event, the Trustees shall pay such property to said Foundation.

2. If at such time either The Genger Foundation created as aforesaid shall not be in existence or said Foundation shall be in existence but shall not be a Qualified Charitable Organization, and if at such time the Trustees are authorized under applicable law to cause to be organized a corporation under and in accordance with the laws of any state of the United States which the Trustees, in their discretion, shall select, which corporation (i) shall be known by the name of The Genger Foundation (or by such other name as the Trustees, in their discretion, shall select if the name of The Genger Foundation shall not be available to be utilized as the name of said corporation), (ii) shall have as its purposes the encouragement, promotion, support and enhancement of non-orthodox study and education for children in the State of Israel pertaining to the customs, practices and ancient and modern history of the Jewish people and shall maintain all of the property held by it, and use all of the net income thereof received from time to time, for the encouragement, promotion, support and enhancement of such study and education for children, (iii) shall be required to maintain all of the property held by it, and use all of the net income thereof received from time to time, for such purposes, with such property and income to be expended for such purposes in such amounts, at such time or times and to or for the use or benefit of such recipient or recipients as the directors, trustees and/or the officers of such corporation shall, in their discretion, determine from time to time, subject, however, to the other provisions of this paragraph 2, (iv) shall have as its initial directors or trustees the Trustees hereunder, the Grantor's cousin, JEREMIAH WOHLBERG (now residing at 2325 Lindenmere Drive, Merrick, New York), if he shall not then be a Trustee hereunder, and also such other individual or individuals, if any, as may be designated by the Trustees, and thereafter to have as directors or trustees such individuals as shall from time to time be determined as provided for in the certificate of incorporation and/or by-laws of said corporation, and (v) shall be organized and maintained in such manner as to be and continue to be a Qualified Charitable Organization, then, in such event, the Trustees shall organize such a corporation, and the Trustees shall pay such property to such corporation.

3. If at such time (i) either The Genger Foundation created as aforesaid shall not be in existence or said Foundation shall be in existence but shall not be a Qualified Charitable Organization, and (ii) the Trustees are not authorized under applicable law to cause to be organized a corporation of the nature referred to in paragraph 2 of this Section B, then, in such event, the Trustees shall pay such property to the JEWISH COMMUNAL FUND OF NEW YORK, New York, New York, to be held, administered and disposed of pursuant to the rules and regulations thereof as an Undesignated Philanthropic Fund to be known as the Genger Philanthropic Fund and with the privilege of making advisory recommendations with respect thereto to be held in the first instance by the Trustees, said JEREMIAH WOHLBERG, if he shall not then be a Trustee hereunder, and also by such other individual or individuals, if any, as the Trustees may designate, and thereafter by such other individual or individuals as such designees and their successors acting in such capacity may from time to time designate, and it is requested (but not directed) that the principal and income of such Fund shall be utilized to encourage, promote, support and enhance non-orthodox study and education for children in the State of Israel pertaining to the customs, practices and ancient and modern history of the Jewish people.

FOURTH: Additions to the Trusts.

Any person, including the Grantor, by a transfer to take effect during the life of such person or upon the death of such person, may, at any time or times, add to the principal of any trust hereunder any property of any kind or nature acceptable to the Trustees, and any such additional property so received by the Trustees pursuant to the provisions of this Article shall thereafter be deemed to be part of the principal of such trust subject to all of the terms, provisions and conditions of this Trust Agreement.

FIFTH: Irrevocability.

This Trust Agreement and the trusts hereby created are irrevocable and not subject to amendment or change.

SIXTH: Governing Law.

This Trust Agreement and the trusts hereby created shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York.

SEVENTH: Trustees.

A. The initial Trustees acting hereunder shall be LAWRENCE M. SMALL and SASH A. SPENCER.

B. Each individual acting as a Trustee hereunder (whether such Trustee is initially a party to this Trust Agreement or a successor Trustee named in Section C of this Article or appointed pursuant to the provisions of this Section B) is authorized and empowered to appoint another individual (other than the Grantor) to act in his or her place and stead as a Trustee hereunder. Each appointment of a successor Trustee hereunder shall be made by the execution of an instrument of appointment signed and acknowledged by the individual who shall have made such appointment and by delivering such instrument in accordance with the provisions of Section G of this Article; and any such appointment may be revoked in the same manner by the individual Trustee who shall have made it at any time before the occurrence of the event or events as of which such appointment shall, by its provisions, become effective. Any appointment made in accordance with the provisions of this Section B shall be valid only if the individual so appointed shall, within thirty (30) days after the later of (i) the date on which a copy of such instrument of appointment is so delivered to him or her, and (ii) the occurrence of the event or events as of which such appointment shall, by its provisions, become effective, qualify as a successor Trustee under this Trust Agreement in accordance with the provisions of Section D of this Article. Each successor Trustee named in Section C of this Article or appointed in accordance with the provisions of this Section B shall be vested with the same powers and authority as the initial Trustees who are parties to this Trust Agreement; provided, however, that no such Trustee shall be permitted to exercise any authority or power which such Trustee shall be prohibited from exercising by an express provision of this Trust Agreement.

C. 1. If either LAWRENCE M. SMALL or SASH A. SPENCER shall cease to act as a Trustee hereunder, and no successor Trustee appointed by him pursuant to the provisions of Section B of this Article shall qualify and act as a Trustee hereunder, MARTIN A. COLEMAN (now residing at 51 Cambridge Road, Great Neck, New York 11023) shall act as Trustee hereunder.

2. If MARTIN A. COLEMAN shall fail or cease to act as a Trustee hereunder, and no successor Trustee appointed by him pursuant to the provisions of Section B of this Article shall qualify and act as a Trustee hereunder, THOMAS G. HARDY (now residing at 935 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10028) shall act as a Trustee hereunder.

D. Each successor Trustee hereunder shall qualify as such by accepting the trusteeship by the execution of a signed and acknowledged instrument of acceptance and by delivering such instrument in accordance with the provisions of Section G of this Article.

E. Any individual Trustee hereunder may resign as such a Trustee by the execution of a signed and acknowledged instrument of resignation and by delivering such instrument in accordance with the provisions of Section G of this Article.

Any such resignation shall become effective upon the receipt of such instrument of resignation by each individual to whom it is delivered or mailed as aforesaid or at such later date as may be specified therein.

F. If any individual while acting as a Trustee hereunder shall become incapable of discharging his or her responsibilities and duties as such a Trustee by reason of a physical, emotional or intellectual incapacity and such incapacity shall be confirmed by each of two medical doctors in written statements, copies of which shall be delivered or mailed as hereinafter provided, the individual who is so incapacitated shall be deemed for the purposes of construing and applying all of the provisions of this Trust Agreement to have effectively resigned as such Trustee in compliance with the provisions of Section E of this Article, such resignation to be deemed to be effective upon the delivery or mailing of the aforesaid statements as hereinafter provided. Each of the aforesaid statements shall be signed and acknowledged by the medical doctor making the same and copies of the same shall be delivered or mailed by registered or certified mail to the individual, if any, who will become the successor Trustee hereunder in the place and stead of the incapacitated Trustee to whom such statement pertains, to each Trustee, if any, then acting hereunder (other than the incapacitated Trustee to whom such statement pertains), and also to either (i) the Grantor (or, if the Grantor shall not then be living, to the executors, administrators or personal representatives of the Grantor's estate), or (ii) any one or more of the adult individuals to whom or for whose use or benefit the income of any trust hereunder may then be paid or applied.

G. Each instrument directed to be delivered in accordance with the provisions of this Section G shall be delivered in person or by mailing a copy of the same by registered or certified mail to each Trustee, if any, then acting hereunder (other than the Trustee, if any, who shall have executed such instrument), and to either (i) the Grantor (or, if the Grantor is not then living, to the executors, personal representatives or administrators of the Grantor's estate), or (ii) any one or more of the adult individuals to whom or for whose use or benefit the income of any trust hereunder may then be paid or applied.

H. No bond or other security shall be given by or required in any jurisdiction (whether in the State of New York or elsewhere) of any Trustee at any time acting hereunder (whether such Trustee is named herein or appointed pursuant to the provisions hereof) for the faithful performance of such Trustee's fiduciary duties in any capacity hereunder regardless of whether such Trustee is or may become a non-resident of the State of New York or elsewhere.

EIGHTH: Compensation of Trustees.

No Trustee hereunder, whether such Trustee is herein-above named or appointed pursuant to the provisions hereof, shall be entitled to any compensation (other than reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses) for services rendered as a Trustee hereunder; and each Trustee who is a party to this Trust Agreement or who qualifies as a successor Trustee hereunder as provided herein shall be deemed to have agreed to serve as such Trustee without receiving any such compensation.

NINTH: Settlement of Trustees' Accounts;
Exoneration of Trustees.

A. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Trustees shall not be required to file with or render to, and the Grantor waives and excuses the filing with or rendering to, any Court an account of their transactions or inventories, accounts, statements or reports of principal and/or income with respect to any trust created hereunder. Nevertheless, the Trustees may at any time have their accounts judicially settled with respect to any trust created hereunder, and in any such proceeding it shall not be necessary to serve any person who is under a disability if there is another party to the proceeding who is not under any disability and who has the same interest as the person who is under a disability, and, in such event, it shall not be necessary to appoint a guardian ad litem for any such party who is under a disability. The expenses of any such account shall be a proper administration expense of the trust to which such account relates.

B. If any Trustee shall resign as a Trustee hereunder, the continuing Trustee, if any, or, if there is no continuing Trustee, any successor Trustee who shall have qualified to act in accordance with the provisions of Section D of Article SEVENTH hereof, may deliver to the Trustee so resigning an instrument whereby such resigning Trustee shall be released and discharged, to the extent stated therein, ~~or and from any and all obligations and liabilities of the Trustee so resigning~~ and ~~omissions as a Trustee~~ any such release and discharge shall be binding upon all persons, whether or not then in being, then or thereafter interested in either the income or the principal of any trust hereunder and shall have the force and effect of a final decree, judgment or order of a court of competent jurisdiction rendered in an appropriate action or proceeding for the judicial settlement of the account of such Trustee in which jurisdiction was obtained of all necessary and proper parties. The foregoing provision, however, shall not preclude any Trustee so resigning from having his or her account judicially settled, and in any such proceeding it shall not be necessary to serve any person who is under a disability if there is another party to the proceeding who is not under any disability and who has the same interest as the person who is under a disability, and, in such event, it shall not be necessary to appoint a guardian ad litem for any such party who is under a disability. The expenses of any judicial account rendered by a Trustee who shall resign shall be a proper administration expense of the trust to which such account relates.

C. In addition to the foregoing, the Trustees are hereby authorized, at any time and from time to time, with respect to any trust hereunder, to settle the account of the Trustees by agreement between the Trustees and the then adult individual or individuals to whom or for whose use or benefit the income of such trust may then be paid or applied and the adult or adults who would be entitled to the principal in case such trust were to terminate at the time of such agreement, excluding any such individual who is under a disability if there is a party to the agreement who is not under any disability and who has the same interest as the individual who is under a disability, which agreement shall bind all persons, whether or not then in being, then or thereafter interested in either the income or the principal of such trust. Any such settlement shall have the same force and effect as a final decree, judgment or order of a court of competent jurisdiction rendered in an appropriate action or proceeding for the judicial settlement of such account in which jurisdiction was obtained of all necessary and proper parties. The expenses of any such account shall be a proper administration expense of such trust.

D. To the extent permitted by law, no Trustee shall be accountable, liable or responsible for any act, default, negligence, or omission of any other Trustee.

TENTH: Definitions.

The word "Trustees" and all references to the Trustees shall mean and refer to the Trustees and successor Trustees hereinabove named, any successor Trustee appointed pursuant to the provisions hereof, any substitute Trustee appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction, the survivors or survivor of them, and their and each of their successors or successor, as may be acting hereunder from time to time.

A. In addition to and in amplification of the powers given by law to trustees, the Trustees, but solely in their fiduciary capacities, are hereby authorized and empowered, in their discretion:

1. To sell, exchange, make contracts with respect to, grant options on or otherwise dispose of, at public or private sale, at such prices, on such terms (including sales on credit with or without security) and at such time or times as the Trustees shall determine, any property, real or personal, which may at any time form part of any trust hereunder.

2. To lease, for such periods (whether or not any such period shall extend beyond the period prescribed by law or the probable term of any trust hereunder), on such terms and conditions and at such time or times as the Trustees shall determine, the whole or any portion or portions of any property, real or personal, which may at any time form part of any trust hereunder, whether the same be held in severalty or as tenant-in-common with others or in a partnership, syndicate or joint venture or otherwise, and release and convey any undivided interest in any such property for the purpose of effecting partition of the whole or any part thereof; and make, place, extend or renew mortgages, pledges, building loan agreements or building loan mortgages upon or affecting any and all such property; and make, execute and deliver such mortgages, pledges and agreements, together with proper bonds, notes or other instruments of indebtedness to accompany the same, and such extension or renewal agreements, as to the Trustees shall seem necessary, advisable or proper; and also to repair, alter, reconstruct, build upon or improve any such property and on such terms and at such time or times as the Trustees shall determine, give and grant to others the right so to do, or agree in, or so modify any lease affecting any such property that the lessee may alter, repair, reconstruct, build upon, improve, mortgage and pledge any such property; and generally to make, alter and modify all agreements, leases, mortgages, pledges, building loans, sales, exchanges, transfers and conveyances of or affecting any such property which the Trustees shall determine to be necessary, advisable or proper for the preservation, improvement, enhancement in value of, or betterment of or addition to, such property.

3. To hold any part or all of the assets of any trust hereunder invested in the same form of property in which the same shall be invested when received by the Trustees, and invest and reinvest the assets of any such trust, or any portion thereof, in any form of investment which the Trustees may determine (including, without limitation, mutual funds, common trust funds, investment trusts, general partnerships and limited partnerships), whether or not such investment is of the nature prescribed by law as a legal investment for fiduciaries or is speculative in nature, and without regard to the percentage of the assets of such trust which such investment or similar investments may constitute.

4. To vote in person or by proxy all stocks and other securities held by any trust hereunder; grant, exercise, sell or otherwise turn to account rights to subscribe for stock and securities and options of any nature; amortize or refrain from amortizing premiums on bonds or other securities which the Trustees may purchase or receive; participate in reorganizations, mergers, liquidations or dissolutions, and contribute to the expenses of, and deposit securities with, protective committees in connection therewith; participate in voting trusts; and generally exercise, in respect of said stock and securities, all rights, powers or privileges which may be lawfully exercised by any person owning similar property in his or her own right.

5. To employ any investment counsel, corporate custodians, agents, accountants, brokers and attorneys which the Trustees may select and pay the charges thereof (including charges for preparation of trust tax returns, the Trustees' accounts and any other necessary trust records); and the Trustees, or a partnership, corporation or other entity in which any Trustee shall be interested, or by which any Trustee may be employed, may be retained in any such capacity, and, in such event, the charges which shall be payable to such Trustee, or to any such partnership, corporation or other entity, shall be in addition to compensation otherwise allowable to such Trustee and may be paid without prior judicial approval.

6. In any case in which the Trustees are authorized or required to pay or distribute any share of any trust hereunder, to make such payment or distribution in kind, or partly in kind and partly in money and, in connection therewith, to allocate equal or unequal interests in, or amounts of, specific property in satisfaction of such payment or distribution; provided, however, that any property distributed in kind shall be valued, for purposes of such distribution, at its fair market value on the date of distribution.

7. To settle, adjust, compromise or submit to arbitration any dispute, claim or controversy in which any trust hereunder may be in any way interested.

8. To borrow money from any person, partnership, corporation or other entity, who may be any Trustee or a partnership, corporation or other entity in which any Trustee may be interested, or by which any Trustee may be employed, for the purpose of meeting any and all charges against any trust hereunder or for any other purpose connected with the administration, preservation, improvement or enhancement in value of any such trust, and, in connection with any such borrowing, to pledge, hypothecate or mortgage any part or all of the assets of any such trust.

9. To keep any or all of the securities at any time forming a part of any trust hereunder in the name of one or more nominees.

10. In any case where doubt or uncertainty exists under applicable law or this Trust Agreement, to credit receipts and charge expenses to principal or income, or partly to each.

11. By instrument or instruments signed by all of the Trustees qualified and acting as such at any time with respect to any trust hereunder, to delegate, in whole or in part, to any person or persons (including any one or more of the Trustees) the authority and power to (i) sign checks, drafts or orders for the payment or withdrawal of funds from any bank account or other depository in which funds of such trust shall be held, (ii) endorse for sale, transfer or delivery, or sell, transfer or deliver, or purchase or otherwise acquire, any and all stocks, stock warrants, stock rights, bonds or other securities whatsoever with respect to such trust, and (iii) gain access to any safe deposit box which may be in the names of the Trustees and remove part or all of the contents of any such safe deposit box and release and surrender the same.

12. To pay or deliver to either parent or to the guardian of the property of any minor or to an adult with whom such minor resides, and, with respect to any person for whom it is permissible to do so under applicable law, to a custodian for such person under a Uniform Gifts to Minors Act or Uniform Transfers to Minors Act of any state until the age of eighteen (18) years (or until such age in excess of eighteen (18) years as shall be permissible under applicable law and which the Trustees, in their discretion, shall select) any sum or property, including income, which such minor or such person shall either be entitled to receive or to have applied for his or her use or benefit under any of the provisions hereof, without requiring that such parent, adult or custodian obtain letters of guardianship or that such parent, guardian, adult or custodian give any bond or other security for any such payment or delivery so made; and the receipt of such parent, guardian, adult or custodian for the amount of such payment, or for the property so delivered, shall be an absolute protection to the Trustees and a complete release and discharge from all further accountability in respect of any such payment or delivery.

13. If any beneficiary of any trust hereunder shall, in the opinion of the Trustees, be or become incapacitated (whether by reason of illness, age or other causes) the Trustees may, in their discretion, wholly or partly in lieu of paying net income or principal of such trust to such beneficiary as authorized or directed by this Trust Agreement, dispose of the same in one or more of the following ways:

(a) by making payment of such net income or principal to a legally appointed guardian or other fiduciary of such beneficiary;

(b) by making payment of such net income or principal, on behalf of such beneficiary, to any person with whom such beneficiary resides or who has charge of his or her care; and/or

(c) by applying such net income or principal directly for the use or benefit of such beneficiary.

14. To remove the assets of, hold and administer any such assets in, and/or move the situs of the administration of any trust hereunder to, such location or locations (which may be in a state or other jurisdiction other than the State of New York) as the Trustees, in their discretion, shall select. If the Trustees, in their discretion, shall determine it advisable to move the situs of the administration of any trust hereunder to a location where the judicial administration of trusts is required or permitted, the Trustees are authorized to select and request a court in such location having jurisdiction over the administration of trusts to accept jurisdiction over the administration of such trust, and it is requested that such court accept, and that it be permitted to accept, jurisdiction over the administration of such trust; and it is directed that the administration of such trust shall be governed from time to time by the laws of the jurisdiction in which the administration of such trust is then located.

15. To make, or refrain from making, elections or allocations permitted under any applicable tax law without regard to the effect of any such election or allocation on the interest of any beneficiary of any trust hereunder and, if any such election or allocation shall be made, to apportion, or refrain from apportioning, any benefits thereof among the respective interests of the beneficiaries of such trust, all in such manner as the Trustees shall deem appropriate.

16. To retain or invest in solido the property held in any trust hereunder with the property held in one or more of the other trusts hereunder or with the property held in any other trust created by the Grantor or by any other person for purposes of convenience or for the better investment thereof.

17. To exercise all authority, powers, privileges and discretion conferred in this Article after the termination of any trust created hereunder and until all of the assets of such trust are fully distributed.

B. No person or party dealing with the Trustees shall be bound to see to the application of any money or other consideration paid by him or her to the Trustees.

C. Neither the principal nor the income of any trust hereunder, or any part thereof, shall or may at any time be liable or subject in any manner whatsoever to the debts or liabilities of any beneficiary entitled to receive any principal or income therefrom; nor shall the principal or income of any trust hereunder be liable to attachment by garnishment proceedings or other legal process issued by any creditor of any beneficiary of such trust for debts heretofore or hereafter contracted by such beneficiary; nor shall any assignment, conveyance, charge, encumbrance or order, either of principal or income, given by any such beneficiary be valid.

D. Wherever in this Trust Agreement it is provided that an instrument is to be "acknowledged," such instrument shall be acknowledged in such manner as would be required if the same were a conveyance of real property entitled to be recorded in the State of New York.

E. 1. To the fullest extent permitted by law, no transaction or decision involving any trust hereunder shall be deemed invalidated in any way by reason of any personal, beneficial or other interest which any Trustee may have with respect to such transaction or decision, including, without limitation, any transaction or decision with respect to any corporation, company, partnership, association, estate, trust or other entity in which any Trustee may have an interest in a capacity other than as a Trustee hereunder, regardless of any conflict of interest as to any such transaction or decision, and any such transaction or decision shall be lawful and proper and shall not be questioned unless such Trustee is guilty of fraud with respect thereto. Without limiting the foregoing, no Trustee shall be disqualified or barred from acting as such or have any liability hereunder in exercising any power, authority or discretion conferred upon the Trustees by reason of the fact that such Trustee may be a stockholder, officer, director, partner, executor, administrator, personal representative, trustee, beneficiary, or in any other way interested in the corporation, company, partnership, association, estate, trust or other entity whose securities or property are the subject matter of the exercise of such power, authority or discretion.

2. The Trustees hereunder shall be entitled to compensation as officers, directors, fiduciaries or other participants in any such entity notwithstanding the fact that they are Trustees hereunder and are also entitled to receive reimbursement for their out-of-pocket expenses as such Trustees.

F. The Trustees shall be under no duty or obligation and shall not be liable to any trust hereunder or to any person or persons interested in any trust hereunder or be surcharged for failure to buy, sell or engage in any transaction directly or indirectly involving securities issued or to be issued by any corporation or other business organization concerning which any of the Trustees, in a capacity other than as a Trustee hereunder, may have acquired any information which has not been disclosed to the public.

TWELFTH: Provisions Relating to the GST.

A. As used in this Article:

1. "GST" shall mean and refer to "the United States generation-skipping transfer tax imposed by Chapter 13 of the Internal Revenue Code."

2. The words "inclusion ratio" shall have the same meaning as those words are given in Section 2642 of the Internal Revenue Code.

3. The words "Net Death Taxes" shall mean and refer to "the aggregate death taxes (including, without limitation, United States, state, local and other estate taxes and inheritance taxes but not including any interest and penalties thereon), after taking into account all applicable credits, payable with respect to the estate of such beneficiary."

B. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Trust Agreement to the contrary, and in addition to any other power of appointment hereinabove given by the previous provisions of this Trust Agreement to any individual at whose death the inclusion ratio with respect to any trust under this Trust Agreement would, but for the provisions of this Section B, be more than zero (such individual being referred to in this Article as "such beneficiary"), the Trustees of such trust are authorized and empowered, by an acknowledged instrument in writing (with such instrument to be filed with the court, if any, then having jurisdiction over such trust, if such court shall accept such instrument for filing), (i) to create in such beneficiary a power (hereinafter referred to in this Section B as "such power"), to be exercised by a provision in his or her Will expressly referring to this Article of this Trust Agreement, to appoint to the creditors of his or her estate any portion of the property held in such trust at the death of such beneficiary, and (ii) to limit such power, by formula or otherwise, to less than all of the property held in such trust at the death of such beneficiary; provided, however, that with respect to each such trust, the maximum amount of property over which such power may be created shall not, after taking into account the property, if any, over which any other such power is created in such beneficiary, exceed the amount, if any, above which any further addition to the amount subject to such power would increase the Net Death Taxes determined with respect to such beneficiary's estate by an amount equal to or greater than the net decrease in the aggregate of (x) the GST and (y) any state and/or local tax on generation-skipping transfers imposed as a result of the death of such beneficiary that would result from such further addition. Unless such beneficiary's Will otherwise provides by express reference to this Trust Agreement and such power, the increase in the Net Death Taxes on such beneficiary's estate resulting from such power shall be paid from that part of the principal of such trust over which such power is exercisable. If, or to the extent that, such beneficiary shall fail so expressly and so validly to exercise any power created in such beneficiary by the Trustees pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph, the unappointed portion (or, as the case may be, all) of the property subject to such power shall pass pursuant to the provisions of this Trust Agreement otherwise applicable to such property.

2. The Trustees are further authorized and empowered, by an acknowledged instrument in writing (with such instrument to be filed with the court, if any, then having jurisdiction over the trust to which such power relates, if such court shall accept such instrument for filing), to revoke any power created by the Trustees pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 1 of this Section B at any time prior to the death of the beneficiary in whom such power was created, and to release, in the manner set forth in Article THIRTEENTH hereof, the right to create such a power. The Trustees shall not be liable for any exercise, release or failure to exercise the authority and power granted to them by the provisions of said paragraph 1 or for the revocation of any power created by them pursuant to the provisions of said paragraph 1, provided they utilize good faith in considering whether or not to exercise or release such power or to cause such revocation, whether such consideration be at their own instance or at the request of an individual who is a beneficiary of a trust hereunder, the guardian or other fiduciary of such an individual, or a member of his or her family.

C. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Trust Agreement to the contrary, if at any time any property is to be placed in a trust under the provisions of any Article of this Trust Agreement, the Trustees shall, if need be, and if it is possible to do so, divide such property and place the same in separate trusts to the end that one such trust shall have an inclusion ratio of zero, and if any property which is directed to be added to a trust hereunder shall have an inclusion ratio which is different than the inclusion ratio of such trust, the Trustees shall not make such addition but shall instead administer such property in a separate trust under this Trust Agreement; and, in each such instance, the property to be placed or held in such a separate trust shall be held, administered and disposed of by the Trustees pursuant to provisions identical to the provisions of the trust to which, but for the provisions of this paragraph 1, such property would have been placed or added.

2. If, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 1 of this Section C, any property that would otherwise be held in a single trust hereunder is instead held in separate trusts hereunder, the Trustees of such trusts may, at any time or from time to time, (i) make different tax elections and allocations with respect to each such trust, (ii) expend principal and income and exercise any discretionary power differently with respect to each such trust, (iii) invest each such trust differently, and/or (iv) take all other actions consistent with such trusts being separate entities. Furthermore, the donee of any power of appointment with respect to such trusts may exercise such power differently with respect to each such trust.

D. Notwithstanding the provisions of the foregoing Sections of this Article to the contrary, if any Trustee hereunder is a current beneficiary of the income of any trust hereunder, or may, in the discretion of the Trustees, be a current income beneficiary of any such trust, then, in such event, such Trustee shall not, in his or her capacity as a Trustee of such trust, have any voice or vote or otherwise participate in any decision pertaining to the matters relating to such trust that are addressed in the foregoing Sections of this Article, and, in each such event, the other Trustee or Trustees of such trust shall make all decisions relating to such trust that pertain to such matters.

THIRTEENTH: Release of Powers.

Any beneficiary and any Trustee hereunder may at any time or times release any discretionary power of appointment or discretionary power to distribute principal or income or any other discretionary power hereby given to such beneficiary or Trustee, either with or without consideration, with respect to the whole or any part of the property subject to such power and also in such manner as to reduce or limit the persons or objects or classes of persons or objects in whose favor such power would otherwise be exercisable, by an instrument signed and acknowledged by the beneficiary or Trustee releasing such power and delivered to (i) each Trustee then acting hereunder (other than the Trustee, if any, who shall have executed such instrument), (ii) the Grantor (or, if the Grantor is not then living, to the executors, administrators or personal representatives of the Grantor's estate), or (iii) any one or more of the adult individuals to whom or for whose use or benefit the income of any trust hereunder may then be paid or applied. In the event of the release of any such power by any Trustee, the remaining Trustee or Trustees hereunder, if any, may thereafter exercise such power, other than any discretionary power which was not initially vested in such remaining Trustee or Trustees. The release of any power by any Trustee hereunder pursuant to the provisions of this Article shall not be binding upon any Trustee who may thereafter act as a Trustee hereunder unless such power shall have been released by all of the Trustees then in office who are vested with such power by their execution of a signed and acknowledged instrument specifically providing that such release is to be binding upon all successor Trustees hereunder.

FOURTEENTH: Provision With Respect To Closely Held Businesses.

Without limiting the powers and authority conferred upon the Trustees by Article ELEVENTH hereof but in extension thereof, the Trustees are specifically authorized and empowered, in their discretion, to retain for as long as they, in their discretion, shall deem advisable, any or all shares of stock in any closely held corporation, or any indebtedness owing by any such corporation, or any or all interests in any proprietorship, unincorporated business, partnership, joint venture, realty or any other asset, whether owned individually, as tenant-in-common, partner or otherwise, regardless of whether such asset or assets shall be producing profits or losses through ownership or operation thereof, and regardless of the percentage of the trusts hereunder which such assets or similar assets may constitute; and their decision to retain and hold any such asset or liability shall be binding and conclusive upon and shall not be subject to question by any person interested, or who may become interested, in any of the trusts hereunder, and the Trustees shall not incur any liability by reason thereof.

FIFTEENTH: Headings.

The Article headings contained herein are inserted only as a matter of convenience and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope hereof or the intent of any provision hereof.

SIXTEENTH: Severability.

Should any part, clause, provision or condition hereof be held to be void or invalid, then such invalidity shall not affect any other part, clause, provision or condition hereof, but the remainder hereof shall be effective as though such void part, clause, provision or condition had not been contained herein.

WITNESS the due execution hereof by the Grantor and Trustees on the day and year first above written.

FINAL JUDGMENT ORDER

For the reasons set forth in this Court's Opinions of December 9, 2009, February 3, 2010, July 23, 2010, and August 9, 2010 (the "Opinions"), this ____ day of August, 2010, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. Unless otherwise provided herein, all defined terms in this Final Judgment Order shall have the same meanings ascribed to them under the Court's Opinions.

2. TR Investors, LLC ("Investors") is the owner of 1,740.7641 shares of the authorized and issued stock of Trans-Resources, Inc. ("Trans-Resources").

3. Glenclova Investment Co. ("Glenclova") is the owner of 1,553.4931 shares of the authorized and issued stock of Trans-Resources.

4. New TR Equity I, LLC ("Equity I") is the owner of 275.7 shares of the authorized and issued stock of Trans-Resources.

5. New TR Equity II, LLC ("Equity II") is the owner of 275.7 shares of the authorized and issued stock of Trans-Resources.

6. The foregoing ownership holdings of Investors and Glenclova include 64% of the Balance Shares, as that term is defined in the Stockholders Agreement, representing 66.4144 shares of the authorized and issued stock of Trans-Resources.

7. As a result of the foregoing, Investors, Glenclova, Equity I and Equity II are presently the owners of a total of 3,845.6572 shares, or 67.7477%, of the authorized and issued stock of Trans-Resources.

8. TPR is the record and beneficial owner of all Trans-Resources shares not presently owned by the Plaintiffs.

9. Arie Genger and the Orly Genger Trust are not (and have not been since at least the date of execution of the Stockholders Agreement) the record or beneficial owners of any Trans-Resources shares.

10. No Trans-Resources shares presently owned by Plaintiffs are subject to any proxy of any kind in favor of Arie Genger.

11. All of the transfers of shares of the authorized and issued stock of Trans-Resources that Arie Genger purported to cause TPR to make in 2004 (to himself, the Sagi Genger 1993 Trust, and the Orly Genger 1993 Trust) were in violation of the Stockholders Agreement.

12. As a result, the transfers were void, the purportedly transferred shares continued to be owned by TPR, and Investors and Glenclova had the right under Section 3.2 of the Stockholders Agreement to buy all of the shares purportedly transferred by TPR.

13. In exchange for, among other consideration, such right under Section 3.2 of the Stockholders Agreement to purchase the Trans-Resources shares purportedly transferred in 2004 from TPR to Arie Genger and the Orly Genger 1993 Trust, Investors, Glenclova, Equity I and Equity II obtained the contractual right to purchase those shares pursuant to a Letter Agreement dated August 22, 2008, between TPR and those entities.

14. If Investors, Glenclova, Equity I and Equity II exercise their rights under the Letter Agreement, they may purchase the shares improperly transferred in 2004 to Arie Genger and the Orly Genger 1993 Trust per the terms of the Letter Agreement, will own such shares, and may vote those shares (which are not subject to any proxy of any kind in favor of Arie Genger).

15. Trans-Resources need not recognize Arie Genger or the Orly Genger 1993 Trust as stockholders.

16. Defendant Arie Genger is ordered to pay reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses to Plaintiffs, in accordance with this Court's December 9, 2009 and February 3, 2010 Opinions, in the amount of $3,200,000, based on Mr. Genger's agreement that he will not challenge the reasonableness of the amount of such fee award (whether on appeal or otherwise), except on the ground that it was improper to award any sanction, including attorneys' fees or expenses, for this Court's contempt finding against Mr. Genger.

17. This Order constitutes a final judgment as to all counts of Plaintiffs' Amended and Verified Complaint Under 8 Del. C. § 225, dated March 11, 2009.

18. This Order constitutes a final judgment as to Arie Genger's Counterclaim dated March 30, 2009.

19. Unless and until otherwise ordered by the Delaware Court of Chancery or the Supreme Court of the State of Delaware, or agreed to in writing by the parties to the above action, Arie Genger and his agents, servants, employees, attorneys, advisors and all persons acting in concert or participation with any of them (including but not limited to Orly Genger and the Orly Genger 1993 Trust to the extent they are so acting), and each of their successors and assigns, shall not, during the pendency of any appeal from this Court's Opinions and Orders in this action, commence or prosecute any legal proceeding (other than this action and any appeal arising therefrom) in any state court constituting a collateral attack on, attempt to prevent implementation of, or relitigation of, any of the Court's holdings set out in paragraphs 2 through 16 (inclusive) of this Final Judgment Order; provided, however, that (x) the foregoing shall not limit the ability of any of the individuals or entities named herein to: (1) commence litigation or to assert added claims or counterclaims in existing litigation so as to comply with any statute of limitations or other doctrine that would subsequently bar such claim, so long as the person making such filing shall contemporaneously apply for a stay of such litigation or claim for the duration of the pendency of this appeal, or (2) make any necessary filings in litigation already filed or commenced against them, so long as they contemporaneously apply for a stay of that proceeding for the duration of the pendency of this appeal; and (y) Arie Genger shall have the right to seek an order from a court of competent jurisdiction requiring TPR Investment Associates, Inc. and its officers and directors to place in escrow the proceeds of sale of the shares of TRI referenced in paragraph 14 of this Order. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Order shall prohibit the commencement or prosecution of claims against TPR Investment Associates, Inc. and its officers and directors and other relevant parties for fiduciary or other misconduct, so long as, during the pendency of this appeal, the persons commencing that action do not seek therein to collaterally attack, prevent the implementation of, or relitigate this Court's holdings described in paragraphs 2 through 16 above.

20. The Second Amended Status Quo Order entered by the Court on December 30, 2008 is hereby terminated and dissolved.
